26th Annual "Chilly" Chili Challenge
Saturday, February 8, 2020
1000 North River Street

Rules:

1. All contestants including caterers must obtain a Monroe County Health Department Temporary Food Service Permit (753-5553). An application has been enclosed for your convenience. Additionally, a Certified Food Worker must be present at the contest site on February 8th. This year's event will be held in a large heated tent by the Roger Robach Community Center.

2. Chili must be prepared at an approved kitchen and comply with all Monroe County Health Department regulations.

3. Contestants should safely prepare a minimum of 5 gallons of chili for public tasting. (Safe food handling and storage is imperative)

4. Each contestant will be provided with a 10' by 10' space, three eight foot banquet tables and 2 folding chairs.

5. Contestants may "decorate" area with banners, signs or placards promoting their restaurant, catering service or nonprofit organization.

6. Electric power will be provided. Other supplemental heat sources are allowed but must comply with all fire regulations.

7. Chili will be tasted/evaluated by a panel of judges as well as the general public. Judges decisions are final. Cash awards and plaques will be presented based on the judge's decision.

8. The People's Choice Award is based on public tasters who will vote for their favorite chili by placing a bean in jars provided at each tasting station.
