

Each summer, the City Bureau of Youth Services provide free breakfast and lunch to city youth 18 years and under through the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Summer Food Service Program. Meals are at many city sites, Monday through Friday, except July 4. Sites include community agencies, schools, churches and recreation centers.

Meals will be provided to all children without charge and are the same for all children regardless of race, color, national origin, sex, age or disability, and there will be no discrimination in the course of the meal service. To file a complaint of discrimination, write or call immediately to: USDA, Director, Office of Adjudication, 1400 Independence Avenue, SW, Washington, D.C. 20250-9410 (866) 632-9992 or (800) 877-8339 (TTY) or (800) 845-6136 (Spanish) or email at program.intake@usda.gov. Or use the form at http://www.ascr.usda.gov/complaint_filing_cust.html. USDA is an equal opportunity provider and employer.
