

Welcome to the City of Rochester's Youth Voice, One Vision Leadership Team Application

Our Vision: Youth Voice, One Vision. The Mayor's Youth Advisory Council, is dedicated to connecting, training and advising Rochester's youth leaders, city governance, adult advisors and community stakeholders. The goal is to establish a diverse membership of youth who can provide expertise in various fields and inform and impact policies related to youth issues.

Our Mission:

Communication, determination, respect, and teamwork: That is YVOV!

- Youth Voice, One Vision is a group of young community members who represent the voice and issues of the youth in Rochester as the Mayor's Youth Advisory Council.
- We are working together to create opportunities, events, and activities that inspire change, and unite our community in a positive way!

Our Objectives are to:

- Conduct on-going community outreach and assessments to identify youth priorities.
- Advise the Mayor and other City officials on a regular basis on issues of importance to Rochester youth.
- Carry out youth led projects and initiatives to impact community change.

Annual Events:

- Beach Bash
- Steppin' Up To Solutions (SUTS)
- The top 3 proposals from Youth Leadership Groups are awarded money, at SUTS, to conduct a Service Project.
- Global Youth Service Day (GYSD) / Roc Stars Talent Show
- Alfred University's Art Force 5 Collaboration
