Halloween at the Market is a hugely popular event that allows children and families to celebrate Halloween in a safe, fun, interactive environment! At this free event, attendees find the vendor sheds filled with community organizations offering trick-or-treating, activities, performances, entertainment, arts and crafts, and much more--including valuable information about programs and services. This event is for outreach and promotion; no sales of merchandise or services is allowed. There no fee to participate but organizations must turn in this application by Sunday, October 13.

- Participating organizations must be either nonprofit, or serve families/children in some capacity.
Submit via email at PMarket@cityofrochester.gov, or via mail/in person to 280 N. Union St. Rochester 14609.
Application deadline is Sunday, October 13. You will receive a response to your application within a week after it is received.
Each organization will receive one 8-foot table, and two folding chairs.
Last year, we had 80+ organizations and approximately 5,000 attendees, which makes this an exceptional outreach event for community organizations.
