A MESSAGE FROM CHIEF DUFFY

On behalf of the 862 dedicated men and women of the Rochester Police Department, I am pleased to present our Annual Report for 2005. This report has been prepared to provide an overview of Department activity. What this report will not be able to articulate is the awesome police work that was done each day and night. As an example of this heroic effort I offer the recovery of 236 guns during the first two months of Operation Law and Order.

In presenting this report, I would like to thank Mayor William A. Johnson Jr., City Council, and the community for the support and cooperation provided to the Police Department throughout the year.

During 2005, the Police Department continued its good fortune in realizing results from teamwork. Anti-violence initiatives such as Operation IMPACT, Operation Law and Order and Operation Rolling Thunder illustrated this team effort.

A MESSAGE FROM CHIEF DUFFY, (cont'd.)

A Department goal for 2005 was to reduce Part I crime by 10%. Due to individual hard work, vibrant initiatives and inter and intra-departmental cooperation, this goal was achieved.

Additional improvements were made to the Department with the creation of the Mental Health Coordinator, a position for a Police Supervisor who is specially trained to deal and coordinate with emotionally disturbed individuals, situations and resources in a variety of situations in the Rochester community.

This document will highlight some of the accomplishments in 2005. I would like to thank every sworn and non-sworn member of the Rochester Police Department for doing an excellent job in 2005. Finally, I would like to thank the citizens of Rochester for providing support and enthusiasm to their Police Department. Their community support is crucial, and with it we will continue to provide protection and safety for all.

ABOUT THE DEPARTMENT

OFFICE OF THE CHIEF

Accreditation ensures that law enforcement agencies provide progressive, customer-focused services and meet the highest professional standards.

The Rochester Police Department received national recognition upon accreditation from the Commission on Accreditation for Law Enforcement Agencies, Inc. (CALEA) in 1987 and the New York State Bureau of Municipal Police in 1990.

Under both programs, these accrediting agencies rigorously review Department practices for compliance with recognized and accepted law enforcement standards.

Accreditation is granted for three years by CALEA and for five years by New York State. During these periods, the agency must comply with all applicable standards. A report is submitted annually to each accrediting body, attesting to continued compliance. At the end of each accreditation period, the agency undergoes a thorough on-site assessment to verify compliance for its re-accreditation.

As a leading law enforcement agency, members of the Rochester Police Department are proud of the high quality of service for which they have been recognized, and continue to pursue excellence in law enforcement.

Recruitment Unit

The human resources of any organization are usually its key ingredient for success. Employees provide the services, operate the technology, and manage resources and other employees. Employees are also the most unpredictable resources and often incur the greatest costs. These circumstances make the recruitment and selection of the right employee a matter of fundamental importance.

Recruitment is particularly important for the Rochester Police Department. In order to function properly, police services need to maintain high levels of trust and cooperation with other governmental agencies and with the citizens of Rochester. The selection of the right people as police officers is essential if public confidence in the integrity and effectiveness of the police services are to be established and maintained.

The RPD's recruiting website averaged 45 hits per day, and the Unit sent over 1,449 e-mail responses and 552 U.S. mail responses (including brochures) to inquiries received. The Unit answered questions regarding the Department and employment with RPD to an average of 138 people per month via telephone and in-person visits.

2005 PART I OFFENSES

Part I and Part II Offenses are defined in accordance with the Uniform Crime Reporting Program, a cooperative statistical effort of more than 17,000 city, county, and state law enforcement agencies. Administered by the Federal Bureau of Investigation since 1930, the Program's primary purpose is to generate reliable statistics for use in law enforcement administration and operation. The data, which has become one of the leading social indicators of our nation, is reported by the Rochester Police Department to the New York State Division of Criminal Justice Services, and is forwarded to the FBI.

CALLS FOR SERVICE

The Rochester Police Department tracks all services to the community by “calls for service”, “police responses”, and “self-initiated activities”. “Calls for service” are 911 calls dispatched by the Emergency Communications Department (ECD). A “police response” occurs each time an additional unit provides service at a given scene. As one call for service may result in multiple units in response, the number of responses is likely to be greater than the number of calls for service. “Self-initiated activity” is an event the officer comes across on the beat or initiates. In 2005, the number of calls for service decreased 4.8% by 20,561 calls, and the number of responses by units decreased 2.7% by 18,815 responses.

ECD assigns each specific incident a Crime Report number. The “CR” number is a unique number assigned to each event by which all reports, tickets, arrests, etc. can be traced. In the event that there is a need to refer back to a given incident, searches can be conducted by entry of the CR number, as well as the date or location of the incident. These retrievals are performed in the RPD Police Activity Tracking System (PATS), an in-house computer application that maintains data on all RPD activity and responses transferred from ECD to the RPD Informations Systems Unit.

HIGHLIGHTS OF 2005

COMMUNITY NARCOTICS ENFORCEMENT TEAMS (C-NET)

C-NET is a collaborative effort between the Rochester Police Department and the New York State Police. The details employ the use of under cover officers provided by the NYS Police to address open-air drug markets within the City of Rochester.

VIOLENT CRIME TASKS FORCE (VCTF)

In response to organized groups committing violent acts, the Rochester Police Department and the FBI created this task force in 1995. RPD officers and supervisors worked together with FBI agents to investigate violent crimes and put cases together on some of our most violent criminals at the time. Targeted were the "G-boyz", Roy Ruffin Jr., and Charles (K.B.) Wilson. The VCTF was the predecessor of what we know today as the Violent Crime Team (VCT), The Violent Criminal Apprehension Team (VCAT), and the Firearms Suppression Unit (FSU).

IMPACT

IMPACT is a collaborative effort amongst the City of Rochester Police Department, the County of Monroe Child Protective Unit, the Monroe County Sheriff's Office and the Monroe County District Attorney's Office. Three Investigators are assigned by the RPD to work with Child Protective caseworkers to jointly interview child abuse victims. This joint interview decreases the trauma to the victim by cutting the number of interviews they have to give and it also permits a more consistent recount of the incident by the victims. The teams utilize space outside of the police department and the social services buildings by meeting with the victim at the Victims Resource Center on Plymouth Ave. The City/County team was established in 1996, and acts as a central point of contact to allow the victims maximum availability to follow-up services. Approximately 275 victims of child abuse are helped annually by this joint effort.

PROJECT CEASEFIRE

Project ceasefire was first developed as part of the Boston Gun Project in 1995-96. Its goal was to reduce gang related firearms violence and homicide with a coordinated law enforcement attack on specific offenders, coupled with an attempt to generate a strong deterrent to gang violence. Locally, Ceasefire was tried prior to SACSI and then reintroduced as a strategy developed during the SACSI process. More recently as part of Project Safe Neighborhoods, the Department has contracted with David Kennedy of Harvard University to retool and reinvigorate our local Ceasefire program. This effort is currently in progress.

FIREARMS SUPPRESSION UNIT

The Firearms Suppression Unit (FSU) was instituted in November 1997, and was originally a component of the now-defunct Violent Crimes Task Force (which ceased operation in December 1999). FSU continued was part of the Metro Rochester Special Operations Group, now the Greater Rochester Special Operations Group. FSU is partnered with the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco & Firearms (BATF) and the Bureau of Immigrations & Customs Enforcement. One mission is the tracing program, which traces the history of all firearms coming into the possession of RPD. This aids in the identification and investigation of persons trafficking firearms into the Rochester area. FSU also conducts training for local law enforcement officers on federal/state gun laws, trafficking and carrier recognition.

PROJECT EXILE

Project Exile is a program run by the Firearms Suppression Unit in conjunction with the US Attorney's Office, Monroe County District Attorney's Office and Monroe County Crime Lab. The program concentrates on reviewing all weapons arrests in the Rochester area to decide whether the defendant would be prosecuted in federal court or state court. The decision depends upon which prosecution will result in a greater term of incarceration. When prosecuted federally the defendant is "exiled" from the community by mandatory incarceration in a facility far removed from their home. Project Excile is not solely an enforcement tool and has evolved into a community partnership with Partners Against Violence Everywhere (PAVE), a victims' anti-violence group. The group works in community education to make the wider community aware of Project Exile.

OPERATION NIGHTWATCH

Operation Nightwatch is a collaborative effort between the City of Rochester Police Department and the County of Monroe, Office of Probation and Community Corrections. The effort pairs RPD police officers up with County Probation officers and together they check for court ordered compliance for probationers that reside in the city. The Rochester Police Department, until recently, would pay School Resource Officers (SRO's) overtime to participate in the program. Now officers are assigned from each section during on duty time. In budget year 2003/2004, our department has budgeted $10,000 for overtime for this joint venture. Over the past several years the City has funded one Monroe County Probation Officer position in Operation Nightwatch through the use of grant funds earmarked for the City. The special emphasis is on youth that are on probation and have an established curfew. Violators can be arrested at the scene of their violation.

GREATER ROCHESTER AREA NARCOTICS ENFORCEMENT TEAM

In May 2000, the Rochester Police Department's Special Investigations Section's Administrative Narcotics Unit and the Monroe County Narcotics Unit were merged to form the Metro Rochester Narcotics Unit (MRNU). In May 2002, MRNU merged with the Multi-Agency Drug Task Force, consisting of police agencies from Irondequoit, East Rochester, Fairport, Webster, Brighton, and the National Guard. This unit is now called the Greater Rochester Area Narcotics Enforcement Team (GRANET). GRANET's advisory board consists of one Town Police Chief, the RPD SIS Captain and the MCSO CID Captain. The mission of GRANET is to achieve maximum coordination and cooperation and bring to bear the combined resources of member agencies to primarily investigate mid-level and upper level narcotics offenses in the Greater Rochester area.

ABOUT THE DEPARTMENT

The “Do the Right Thing” Program began in Rochester in 1996 and was adopted from a similar program in the Miami Police Department. The program’s goals are to reinforce socially desirable behavior, to demonstrate that “good kids” are newsworthy, and to foster positive relations between young people and police officers.
