PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS.

The President addressed the Board as follows:

It is with feelings of mingled pleasure and apprehension that I assume the duties of the responsible position to which I have been elected. Pleasure that my neighbors and fellow citizens have seen fit to select me for this important duty, and have given me the opportunity to serve the city which I love so well, and where nearly half a century of my life has been spent; and I take this opportunity, which may be the only one I shall ever have, to thank my friends and all the citizens of Rochester, for this expression of confidence and esteem. The doubt, which I have at times, that I may not be able to fulfill all the expectations of my friends, fills me with apprehension; but I shall endeavor to the best of my ability to merit the confidence reposed in me. If I fail it will be in judgment.

This first meeting of the Common Council under the new charter, begins an era in the municipal government of the city, and we, as representatives of the people who are so deeply interested, should be impressed with the responsibilities which we are assuming; we should first of all dispossess our minds, if any such idea has found lodgment there, of our own importance, and understand that we are simply the servants of the people, who have sent us here to attend to their business, and that if we do not do it in a manner satisfactory to them they will employ other and better men who will be faithful to the trusts intrusted to them.

I have often, in giving advice to young men, told them that in order to be successful and retain the confidence of their employers, they must make themselves so useful that their services cannot be dispensed with, and I pledge myself to do everything in my power to assist you in accomplishing this desirable result. In order to do this we must first get the confidence of the people who have sent us here to represent them, and to whom we must answer for all our public and official acts, and all of our business must be transacted with doors wide open; no honest man will have anything pertaining to his employer's business to conceal from him. Every matter presented to us, however trivial it may seem, should have ample time for proper consideration and intelligent disposal. You should bear in mind that while you are here representing a comparatively small constituency, you are expected to legislate for all the people of the city.

It will be the aim of your president to make this as dignified and respected a body of legislators as our city has ever had, and to accomplish this I ask, and must have, the assistance of each of you. Every member of this council shall stand on an equal footing. I will not intentionally restrict the rights of any member. I shall, no doubt, make many mistakes, and for these mistakes I ask, in advance, your indulgence.

Ald. Kelly moved that the president's address be received, filed and published.

Adopted.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE MAYOR.

To the Common Council of the City of Rochester:

The opening of the year 1900 witnesses the inauguration of a government for the city of Rochester upon a new plan formulated by the legislature of this state in an act affecting cities of the second class, passed in 1898. By virtue of that act, the Common Council is, generally speaking, limited to the exercise of legislative power; but that power is greater than it has ever before possessed, because the authority of the Common Council to legislate is not confined as heretofore to enumerated subjects, but reaches every interest affecting the welfare of the city and its citizens.

All the executive power of the city, except that delegated to the Board of Education and the Board of Park Commissioners, is vested in the mayor.

The purpose of this clear separation of legislative and executive power, and the concentration of the latter need hardly be stated. It is to enable citizens to fix responsibility for official action.

The charter makes it the duty of the mayor to communicate by written message to the Common Council, at least once a year, a statement of the finances and general condition of the affairs of the city. The present communication is intended principally as a message of greeting and good will upon the occasion of the New Year, to the first Common Council elected under the new charter. I hope in the near future, when access to the books and records of the city government has given me more detailed and accurate information of the state of the city's finances, to communicate that information to the Council and to the public. I shall endeavor to make clear in every detail the condition of municipal affairs on the 1st day of January, 1900. It will also be my duty and my desire to inform the Council from time to time of any new policies or methods adopted in the management of any department of the city government.

I announce that by virtue of the authority vested in me by the charter, I have made the following appointments to office: To be commissioner of public works, J. Herbert Grant; to be city engineer, Edwin A. Fisher; to be commissioner of public safety, James G. Cutler; to be corporation counsel, Porter M. French; to be commissioner of charities and correction, Joseph A. Crane; to be Sealer of Weights and Measures, George T. Foster; to be executive clerk to the mayor, John J. McInerney.

There is one subject which presses for immediate consideration:—that of the public printing of the official proceedings of the Council and the several boards of the government. And it is a subject which is relevant to a consideration of the financial affairs of the city. The minutes of those proceedings promise to be far more voluminous than ever before. The charter provides that at its first meeting the council shall designate two newspapers which shall be the official papers of the city, and which shall publish all matter required to be published, and that the bills for such service shall be a city charge. The charter does not prescribe any check upon the reasonableness of those bills or upon the cost to the city of such printing other than the audit of the comptroller. These provisions constitute an unaccountable departure from the policy pursued in all other cases of throwing up the bulwark of competitive bidding against excessive cost of materials purchased or work performed. In every other case a contract is made by proper authority upon bids submitted, and the audit of the Comptroller follows. I, therefore, earnestly recommend, if the Council has not already taken steps to this end, that before the official papers are designated, the Council obtain reliable assurance by competitive bidding, or otherwise, what the proposed cost of this service is to be. The Council could then consider not only the ability of the several applicants to do the work, but also the fairness and reasonableness of the price offered. This is the first important action to be taken affecting the interests of taxpayers, and they will narrowly watch the manner in which this piece of business is transacted.

We are to-day at the beginning of an administration which will doubtless meet many embarrassments and commit many errors. It is my earnest hope and confident expectation that through all difficulties the Common Council and the executive departments will work together in perfect harmony for the welfare of the city.

Respectfully submitted,

George A. Carnahan, Mayor.

Dated January 2, 1900.

Ordered received, filed and published.

MISCELLANEOUS COMMUNICATIONS TO THE BOARD.

By the Clerk—

To the Honorable the Common Council of the City of Rochester, New York:

Gentlemen:—This is a proposition to do the work of publishing the proceedings of the Common Council, notices, etc., in the Evening Times in accordance with the provisions of the new charter.

It appears that the charter contains no recommendation that bids be asked for or that this contract be let to the lowest bidder, an omission which palpably places the section relating to the city printing at actual variance with the spirit and letter of the new charter. According to the language of the charter the way is left open for the designation of two official papers by this Council without regard to competition and absolutely without regard to price, a situation, which if it were to be accepted, by reason of this oversight would place your honorable body in the identical position charged to the preceding administration, that of mulcting the city of Rochester in the interests of politics. It was on the lines of public extravagance and waste of the city's money, included in which was the method employed by the Democratic Council in letting the city printing contract, that the successful fight was made for your majority here by the representative press of this city. It is a matter of record also that at least three of the newspapers of this city, namely the Post Express, Democrat and Chronicle and the Times, have advocated competitive bids for the printing and the letting of the contract to the lowest bidder. The fact that this rule has not always been followed out, coupled with the additional fact that it has resulted in large losses at various times to this debt-ridden city, is attested to by important evidence, as we shall see. We quote from the Post Express editorial page of October 18th as follows:

"During his first term, Mayor Warner had to deal with a republican Common Council, and to advertise himself as a reformer he vetoed nearly every action taken by that body. Among the resolutions to which he would not give his approval was one awarding the official printing to a republican newspaper, the 'Democrat and Chronicle.' In his veto message he declared that the city printing 'SHOULD BE DONE AS CHEAPLY AS POSSIBLE.' This was the platform on which he stood; he was a vigilant defender of the interests of the taxpayers; there was no reason why the city should pay more than the market price for its printing. The printing 'should be done as cheaply as possible.' And so the council was compelled to advertise for bids. Very good.

"But in 1898 there was a democratic Common Council; the question of printing came up; bids were invited; the newspapers responded, and the following bids per inch for printing the city notices in solid nonpareil type were made:

	Cents.
Times (independent)	15
Democrat & Chronicle (republican)....	16
Union & Advertiser (democratic).....	20
Herald (democratic)	21 $\frac{1}{4}$
Post Express (republican)	23

"The democratic Common Council, with these bids before it, voted to award the printing of the notices to the two democratic papers, the 'Herald' and the 'Union & Advertiser,' at 20 cents an inch, though the bid of the 'Times' was 15 cents and that of the 'Democrat & Chronicle,' was 16 cents. And the democratic mayor, who had placed himself on record as declaring that the city printing 'should be done as cheaply as possible' offered no objection!"

Again to quote from the Post Express editorial page of October 31st: "One of the strongest criticisms upon Mayor Warner is that he has continually 'played to the galleries.' Pretending to be acting in behalf of the people, he has really conspired against them. In many cunning ways he has sought for public applause, and then has made secret betrayal of the trust confided in him.

"Take the printing question, for example. During his first term he vetoed a resolution awarding the printing to the 'Democrat & Chronicle' on the ground that the city printing 'should be done as cheaply as possible.'

"During his second term the democratic Common Council voted to award the printing of the notices to the two democratic papers, the 'Herald' and the 'Union and Advertiser,' at 20 cents an inch, though the bid of the 'Times' was 15 cents and that of the 'Democrat & Chronicle' was 16 cents. And Mayor Warner, who had declared that the city printing 'should be done as cheaply as possible' approved the proceedings."

What this action of a preceding Council cost the city at a loss of five and six cents an inch on a contract amounting to several thousand dollars, is merely a question of figures which are accessible to your honorable body and to every other taxpayer. It will be seen by these references and more recently by the tenor of editorial statements in the Democrat and Chronicle and the Times, that the press of Rochester is not in sympathy with or a party to a system which is actually mulcting the city treasury.

In 1899 you were afforded another example of how circumstances which are unnecessary, have made public servitors a party to this mild-mannered theft. Through a process of juggling the Council neglected to ask for bids at its first meeting, as prescribed by the charter. This omission continued over several meetings. Meantime, the democratic city clerk, acting in accordance with his faith, designated the Union and Advertiser to do the printing, pending action by the Council.

A resolution was finally adopted and approved by the mayor, inviting bids from newspapers bearing the union label. Acting upon the terms of this resolution, the Times submitted a proposition to do the printing for twenty and twenty-five cents. It was accepted by the law committee, by the Council and signed by the mayor. At this juncture the mayor and the Council were enjoined from entering into the contract on the ground of "discrimination," and pending a court decision on this question the Union and Advertiser continued to do the printing for which it submitted bills and which in part have been paid at thirty cents an inch. As bearing on the point in question, namely, the outrageous waste of the city's money by a process of political sandbagging, we invite your attention to the following communication from City Auditor Mann, which was submitted at the last meeting of the Council of 1899:

Dec. 29, 1899.

To the Honorable, the Common Council:

Gentlemen—I return herewith two bills of the Union and Advertiser company for $197.25 and $101.40 respectively, for publication of official proceedings of the Common Council and Executive Board during the month of November last, without approval. Bills on account of the same service for ten months of the current year up to November 1st, have recently been paid, and which the facts bearing thereon, then presented to me, appeared to justify me in approving, but which I am now convinced should have been qualified as to the amount allowed thereon. In the consideration of these later bills and after further investigation. I cannot avoid the conclusion that this being a continuing account for the year and no valid contract having been made as to a specific price to be paid, the compensation should be reasonable, governed by the most recent prevailing rate of wages for the same kind of service for other public bodies as well as the Common Council.

I am convinced that 25 cents per inch answers these conditions fully as a just price to be paid, although less than that has been paid in some instances, and more in other cases, not recently.

I find that the official proceedings of the Board of Supervisors have for years up to the present time been published uniformly by the several papers at that price and no more.

The price now being paid by the Board of Education for publication in the Post Express is 24 cents per inch only.

In view of the above and the fact that the execution of a contract for this year with another publishing firm at 25 cents per inch was prevented, not for reasons questioning their good faith or ability to properly do the work, I fail to see any good reason for approving further payment on this account without a credit of 5 cents per inch on the whole account, being the difference between 25 and 30 cents as charged.

On that basis I consider it would be fair to adjust the account to include publication for December; bills for the latter not yet presented.

Respectfully,
A. S. MANN, Auditor.

Now we submit that in the face of the figures and facts here presented, your honorable body cannot go on record for a continuance of these methods without pledging yourselves to extravagance which you were elected to correct. It is equally plain, moreover, that a majority of the newspapers, those we have named, can not consistently accept the printing contract from the city upon the unbusinesslike terms which they have repeatedly declared to be outrageous and contrary to sound policy and at a figure higher than the current price. It is for the purpose, therefore, of meeting this Council half way in the solution of this vexed question, and in the face of the omission in the charter to provide for either a price or competitive bids, that we herewith submit a business proposition to your honorable body, as follows:

We will print in the Evening Times, distribute and publish in accordance with the exact demands of the new charter, the proceedings of the Common Council, all city notices and other matter required to be published in the official city papers for eighteen (18) cents an inch, and a satisfactory bond in any amount required by this Council will be given for the faithful performance of the contract.

Respectfully yours,

Whereas, the charter contains no provision for procuring bids from the publishers of newspapers qualified to act as, and be official newspapers, as seems to be demanded by every consideration of economy and good business judgment, and,

Whereas, it seems proper that this first meeting should not adjourn until such bids may be obtained, but that a recess should be taken for such purpose,

Resolved, That the Council take a recess to January 9, 1900, at 7.30 p. m., and in the meantime the city clerk get statements as to the circulation and ability to do the work of the city of the English daily newspapers of Rochester, together with the prices at which they will print the notices and proceedings of the Council for the information of the board in their designation of official newspapers as prescribed by the charter. By Ald. Plumb—Whereas, in the past, in the making of improvements in various of the streets in the city of Rochester in which the tracks of a street railway company have been laid and the railroad operated, the operation of the railroad has in many cases been unnecessarily delayed and thereby the public greatly and unnecessarily discommoded, and the railway company subjected to severe and unnecessary loss; and,

Resolved, That in all contracts for the making of improvements in the public streets of the city of Rochester, in which the tracks of a street railway are laid, and the railroad in operation, which improvements necessarily require, to some extent, an interference with or removal of the tracks for the time being,—the Board of Contract and Supply is hereby directed and requested to insert, in the specifications for such public improvement to be prepared and printed as provided in section 120 of the charter and in the contracts let in accordance with such specifications and the provisions of such section,—a provision providing in substance and effect that in the course of making such improvement in streets where the street railway has a double track, that throughout the making of such improvement at least one track shall be left undisturbed, or that where it is necessary to remove both tracks temporarily, one track only shall be removed at a time and the improvement finished under that and the track restored before the other track is removed; and that in streets where the railway company is operating only a single track that the improvement shall be so made that when it becomes necessary to disturb or remove such track, that one side of the street shall be left in such condition that the tracks may for the time being be temporarily removed to such side of the street and operated until the same can be restored to its proper location in said street; and that at no time during the progress of such improvement shall the entire traffic of the railroad upon such street be suspended, except during such time as may necessarily be occupied in removing the tracks from one point to another.

To the Finance committee of the Common Council:

Gentlemen—Pursuant to your request I have carefully examined the papers put in my hands for that purpose with a view of discovering, if possible, who might be responsible for the endorsements of the names of A. G. Schreck, Joseph M. Schmitt and John Double on certain poor fund orders on the City Treasurer. Said endorsements having been claimed to be forgeries, and in my opinion they are. The determination as to whether they are genuine or not is easy of solution and I do not hesitate to pronounce them as not genuine. From the data handed by you to me I would not, however, put myself on record as locating the forger. I may have my opinion, and in fact I have, but I feel it would be unjust to accuse any one man with so little material to work on. It is better that ten guilty men escape than that one innocent man be unjustly accused. If the forgery involved several lines of writing the personality of the writer would be surely made manifest, but where there are simply signatures, and the personality is disguised in order to imitate the genuine, I feel that the accuracy of the expert would be jeopardized in expressing an unqualified opinion and thereby making a charge that could not be supported absolutely under oath.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

H. F. ATWOOD.

By the Clerk—

To the Honorable, the Common Council:

Gentlemen—We respectfully call your attention to the importance of prompt and energetic action on the part of the municipal authorities in the matter of the collection and disposition of the city's garbage.

In August, 1894, the Board of Health entered into a written contract with one John A. Lightal to collect and reduce the city's garbage for a period of ten years from October 25, 1894, at a rate of compensation increasing somewhat each year for the first five years, starting in at $2,400 per month, in round numbers, and amounting at the present time to about $2,800 per month. Prior to that time the work had been done by hiring teams by the day.

The records of the Common Council show that the average cost of collecting the garbage for the eight months immediately preceding October, 1894, was $3,240 per month.

The contract was distinctly advantageous to the city in two important particulars: first, there was an immediate saving to the city in expenditure for garbage collection of $840 per month, or over $10,000 per year; and second, by providing for the reduction of the garbage in a sanitary manner, the city secured freedom from liability for damages for nuisance caused by the former custom of dumping the garbage upon the surface of the ground.

The Lightal contract, with the consent of the municipal authorities, was subsequently assigned to the Flower City Reduction company. On December 11, 1896, Hascal A. Hogel was appointed by the Supreme court temporary receiver of the said company, and was duly authorized by the said court to continue and conduct the affairs of said corporation. On January 8, 1898, Mr. Hogel was made permanent receiver of the company, and has ever since performed the contract, except as its provisions for reducing the garbage have been waived, and as his performance has been prevented by the wrongful acts of the city's agents.

The contract, while made in the name of the Board of Health, was really for the benefit of the city of Rochester, and was immediately and for a period of four years recognized as such by the Common Council. By a series of double resolutions adopted at monthly intervals during that period, the Common Council provided for the monthly cash payments called for by the contract, specifying the exact amount designated in the contract, using the expression, "as per contract," directing the deposit of 10 per cent, in the reserve fund, requiring a reduction for valid complaints, etc., thus showing beyond the possibility of doubt an intention on the part of the Common Council to ratify, confirm and make their own, the action of the Board of Health in entering into the contract. Once ratified by the Common Council, the contract became in all respects as binding upon the city as if entered into by the Common Council in the first instance.

From July, 1898, to December, 1899, the garbage contract was made the football of the politicians in control of the various boards comprising the last municipal administration. As early as July, 1898, word was sent to Mr. Hogel's attorney by the then Mayor and President of the Board of Health, that unless Mr. Hogel reinstated a certain garbage collector whom he had discharged for cause, the garbage contract would be taken away from him. Mr. Hogel declined to make the reinstatement, and war against him was thereupon declared by the discharged employee and his political friends and backers. For nearly eight months the Board of Health was restrained by injunction from carrying out their declared purpose of canceling Mr. Hogel's contract. They were told by Mr. Justice Nash that if the receiver had performed his contract, a resolution cancelling the contract would be absolutely void and without effect. And Mr. Justice Dunwell informed the board that if they should proceed wantonly, without cause, to commit a breach of contract, it was difficult to see how Mr. Hogel could be deprived of compensation for future profits.

And yet, "under pressure," as one member of the board put it, in February, 1899, they did that very thing, "wantonly and without cause" declared the contract cancelled. They notified the contractor of no charges, gave him no opportunity to be heard in his own behalf and assigned no reason whatever for the adoption of the resolution. Their action was, to the last degree, "wantom and without cause."

The same forces were in control of the Common Council of 1899. On May 9th the law committee reported upon the advice of the Corporation Counsel that the Light-al contract had never been ratified by the Common Council, and was therefore absolutely void and of no effect, and imposed no liability upon the city. At the same meeting the Common Council employed Thomas Holahan to collect garbage during the pleasure of the board at the rate of $2,000 per month.

The treatment of the garbage question by the last administration is an interesting but expensive illustration of the heretofore prevailing method of conducting the city's business as an annex to a political machine. In addition to the reckless disregard of the city's obligations under its contract with Mr. Hogel, and the consequent imposition of double liability for the work of garbage collecting, it is interesting to note that the Common Council was willing to allow Mr. Holahan to decide for himself whether he should put on two, ten or twenty teams to do the work, and whether he should make collections daily, weekly, monthly, or quarterly, the only definite provision of the contract being that which bound the city to hand out to Mr. Holahan $2,000 every month. It should also be observed in passing that the same "responsible majority" of the last council, having, as Dr. Parkhurst said of Tammany, "the courage of their depravity," at the last meeting in December, lined up in solid phalanx in an almost successful attempt to fasten the Holahan contract upon the city for another year.

In the meantime Mr. Hogel has sued the city for nearly $40,000, and the city's liability is increasing at the rate of $2,800 per month. At an expense of upwards of $25,000 Mr. Hogel has built and equipped a factory for the reduction of garbage, upon a new and improved system, devised by him. The factory is located in the town of Chili, about four miles from the city limits. It is undoubtedly the best equipped reduction factory in the United States. It is and has been for some time in actual operation. Since the Common Council arbitrarily cut off Mr. Hogel's base of supplies, his labor of collecting garbage has been necessarily somewhat curtailed. Mr. Hogel has, however, at all times been ready and willing to put on a sufficient number of teams to collect the garbage thoroughly in accordance with the provisions of his contract, to transport it to his factory and there reduce it. He expects to put on a full force of teams and carry out his part of the contract to the letter on and after the 1st day of February, 1900.

We are authorized by Mr. Hogel to say that he desires an amicable adjustment of the differences existing between him and the city; that in order to effect such adjustment he is willing to make liberal concessions from what he believes to be his strict legal rights; that during the time necessarily taken for effecting an amicable adjustment, or failing that, for determining Mr. Hogel's rights in the courts, he will collect the city's garbage "as per contract," for $2,000 per month, that amount to be in full if it be ultimately decided that he has no valid contract, but if the final decision be otherwise, that sum to be treated only as a partial payment on account; that he will in no court or place assert any claim that the action of the city in making such temporary payments of $2,000 per month constitutes a ratification by the city in whole or in part of the contract under which he claims, and that he will execute such agreement to carry out the foregoing stipulation as may be deemed necessary by the Corporation Counsel.

The record of the last administration upon the garbage question was a potent factor in determining its well-merited overthrow by the people. A new administration pledged to conduct the city's affairs upon business principles, is now in power. Business economy and prudence, a proper regard for the preservation of the city's good faith, a purpose to encourage capital in the building of new industries, all conspire to demand at your hands the immediate termination of Mr. Holahan's contract, the ascertainment from the Corporation Counsel of Mr. Hogel's rights under his contract, a satisfactory settlement if possible, if not a speedy trial of the action, and pending such determination, the collection of the garbage by Mr. Hogel at $2,000 per month, without prejudice to the rights of either party.

Very respectfully submitted,

SLOCUM & DENTON,

Attorneys for H. A. Hogel, Receiver.

To the Honorable, the Common Council of the City of Rochester:
 Gentlemen—Referring to your resolution of January 16th, as to the authority of the Common Council to cause a summary of proceedings, and of the official notices of the city, to be published in the German daily papers, it is my opinion that no such authority exists, for the reason that Section 29 of the new charter has provided for a designation of official papers in which all proceedings and official notices are to be published; and it seems to me such designation is exclusive.
 Very respectfully,
 P. M. FRENCH,
 Corporation Counsel.

To the Honorable, the Common Council of the City of Rochester:

Gentlemen—I desire to establish a public produce market in the city of Rochester, and I respectfully request that your honorable body frame an ordinance under which such market might be operated. I am prepared to enter into public competition for the franchise. I will submit with my bid the site which I propose to use.

I do not care to bid for any franchise which will have less than ten years to run. A longer period than that would be better for all parties.

Respectfully yours,

A. B. SANDERL.

PUBLIC SAFETY COMMITTEE REPORT.

To the Honorable, the Common Council of the City of Rochester:

Gentlemen—Your committee on Public Safety, to whom was referred the police ordinance introduced at your last meeting, would respectfully report:

The necessity of establishing precinct stations has been agitated from time to time by the aldermen and Police Commissioners of this city. On August 22, 1892, a committee of aldermen sent to Cleveland, Detroit and Buffalo, by direction of the Common Council, for the purpose of investigating the police systems in vogue in those cities, made a report published on pages 202, 203 and 204 of the Common Council proceedings of 1892-1893, in which they bestow unstinted praise on the precinct station system as managed in those cities, and make the following recommendation:

"The subject of precinct stations is a matter of great importance to the people of this city, and their establishment as a part of our police system is only a question of time; therefore, we recommend that this matter be referred to the Police committee of this Board and Police Commissioners to ascertain and report to the Council, plans for establishing and maintaining precinct stations in this city."

So far as we have been able to discover, no report was ever made, and the precinct station scheme was permitted to die a-borning. Commissioner Cutler, however, who, since his incumbency of the office of Commissioner of Public Safety, has shown a marked aptitude for public affairs, an extensive knowledge of municipal police requirements and a vigorous determination to elevate the Rochester police department to the highest possible degree of efficiency, has wisely, yet conservatively, revived the question in the form of the ordinance submitted at your last meeting.

We can present no better or stronger argument for the adoption of the precinct station system than the following memorandum presented by him to your committee:

"The city of Rochester has more than three hundred miles of streets and twenty years ago had outgrown the present inadequate village system of administering its police department from a central station. The work of the police is territorial and the experience of the majority of other cities shows the necessity of establishing centers of police administration within circumscribed areas known as police precincts.

"I have made a careful study of the map of Rochester and am satisfied that less than five precincts would fail to divide the administration with a reasonably satisfactory relation to the extent of the city.

"Of course the central precinct will contain many of the important centers of disturbance and necessarily require an assignment of the largest number of men given to any precinct.

"It would be my aim to locate the stations in the four outlying precincts as near as possible to the main electric car lines, because of the facility thus afforded for concentration of all the police force at a given point in case of a large fire or other emergency. This would also divide the precincts on main avenues, and in this way the beats would come together on these centers of communication. That is to say, there would be a double protection on the main avenues.

"The necessary expense involved in the change will be very small in proportion to the benefits obtained and would be absolutely controlled and limited by the Board of Estimate and Apportionment.

"The mere fact that there is a police station in each of the four outlying quarters of the city would, of itself, have an appreciable effect upon the centers of disturbance; and the time saved by officers going and coming off duty would pay for the additional expense many times over. An officer who reports at the station on Exchange street to go on duty at eight o'clock, does not, in many cases, reach his beat for half or three-quarters of an hour later; and I am informed that there is apt to be the same or similar loss of time in going off beats. Under the new system, the officers would report at the precinct station houses and could in no case occupy more than ten or fifteen minutes in reaching their post of duty. Moreover, the officers, in going on duty from the outlying precinct stations, would cover much of these precincts, as at present is not the case in those parts of the city remote from the center.

"The proper administration of the police department requires that the officers should report everything worthy of notice or requiring attention in the precinct, such as defective sidewalks, vacant property not cared for, nuisances, etc. The location of a captain with an organized force would render this service not only possible in outlying territory but prompt and economical as it can be by no possibility under the present arrangement."

Your committee has no hesitation in saying that it indorses fully the views of Mr. Cutler as above set forth.

With regard to the detective branch of the service, the commissioner thinks, and your committee agrees with him, that the present arrangement of assigning detectives to duty is, to put it mildly, unsatisfactory. He proposes to substitute for it the plan of assigning an officer to detective duty for a probationary period, during which time it can be determined whether or not the officer possesses the detective instinct and other qualities which are required in the service. If he shall then be found qualified, he is to be raised to the rank of detective sergeant. If found not qualified, he will be returned to patrol duty. A man may be a very good patrolman and not be of any use in the detective bureau.

Upon consultation with Mr. Cutler, we think there should be a head to the detective bureau, and we would therefore recommend that power be given to the commissioner to appoint another captain, who shall be director of the Detective Bureau, when found necessary.

And we are impelled to believe that the time may soon arrive when it will become necessary to appoint an inspector who shall devote all his time to the duties of that office. The inspector should rank next to the chief and perform the duties of chief in the latter's absence or inability to act. Such officer should also daily visit the several precincts and the various beats, both in the day time and at night, and see to it that the officers and men of the different precincts are performing their work in harmony with one another and in such a manner as to accomplish the best results.

It will probably be found, later, that the captain of precinct No. 1 will have all he can do to look after his precinct, and authority should be given to the commissioner to appoint an inspector if the necessity arises. We recommend, therefore, that section 4 be amended so as to read as follows:

Sec. 4. The office of Assistant Chief of Police and Chief of Detectives being abolished by this ordinance, the present Assistant Chief of Police will hereafter have the title of Captain.

The Commissioner of Public Safety may, when, in his opinion, the good of the department shall require it, appoint an inspector whose duty it shall be to act as chief in the absence or disability of the Chief of Police or in the case of vacancy in the office, until the absence or disability ceases or the vacancy be filled, and to perform such other services as shall be prescribed by the Commissioner of Public Safety. Until such appointment shall have been made, the captain in command of the first precinct shall act as inspector.

We also suggest the addition of two sergeants and the reduction of two in the number of patrolmen, so that the provision will be 14 sergeants and 148 patrolmen. It should be noted that this will leave the same number of names on the pay roll, as at present, and that they will be the same names.

A copy of the ordinance, amended in accordance with these suggestions, is hereto appended.

In conclusion, your committee would strongly urge that, with the few minor changes suggested, the ordinance be adopted.

The adoption of the ordinance means the taking of the first step towards placing Rochester in the front rank of progressive cities. With a police department well officered and organized and a bureau of skilled detectives; with precinct stations judiciously located, so that every portion of the city will have adequate protection; with a proper grading of the men according to length of service, knowledge of their powers and duties, department and discipline, the residents of our city will enjoy a sense of security and happiness never felt before.

Dated, Rochester, N. Y., January, 1900.

11. Whenever the good of the service shall demand it, the Commissioner of Public Safety is empowered to appoint an extra Captain, who shall be the Director of the Detective Bureau.

COMMUNICATIONS FROM THE MAYOR

By the Clerk—

Mayor's Office,
Rochester, N. Y., Feb. 13, 1900.

To the Honorable, the Common Council of the city of Rochester:

The council has twice by majority vote indicated its intention of terminating on February 28th, the arrangement which now exists for the collection of garbage in the city. In view of that expressed determination the members of the Board of Contract and Supply have deemed it unsafe for the city's interests that there should be delay in providing new means for doing that work, and the board has, therefore, taken steps to place the city in a position where a new contract can go into operation immediately upon the termination of the existing contract. It is, however, advisable that the Board of Contract and Supply be authorized by the Council to make such a contract.

The legality of the action already taken by the Council, looking to the cancellation of the existing contract, has been questioned. I therefore respectfully recommend that an ordinance be passed by the Common Council, in the manner prescribed by law, annulling all rights under the existing contract, and that the Council by the same or a separate ordinance, authorize the Board of Contract and Supply to make a proper contract for the collection and disposal of garbage.

The fire marshal has called to my attention the subject of preparation for holding primaries and elections and the care and custody of the voting machines and other election property. I respectfully recommend that, if no sufficient ordinance exists, the Common Council adopt one placing such property in charge of the fire marshal, directing him to make necessary arrangements for holding primaries and elections; and providing that wherever booths are used they be erected in the public streets, to save the expense of renting a site upon private land.

Very respectfully,
GEORGE A. CARNAHAN,
Mayor.

Dated, February 12th, 1900.

Received, filed and published and referred to Committee on Law.

CITY PROPERTY COMMITTEE REPORT
To the Common Council:

Gentlemen—Your City Property committee to which was referred the communication from John Werner, relative to the purchase of old No. 8 school building and lot, would report thereon as follows:

Mr. Werner offers $2,500 for the lot and building. At a meeting of your committee another offer considerably in excess of that named by Mr. Werner was presented.

Your committee has learned that a portion, at least, of the lot will be required by the Park Commission for the construction of the proposed East Side park boulevard. Should the property now be sold and afterward required for park purposes it would then be necessary for the city to repurchase it. This of itself would constitute a sufficient reason for a retention of the property by the city and your committee would therefore recommend that the building and lot of No. 8 school be held by the city until such time as it may become apparent that the property will not be needed for park purposes.

Ald. Beard moved that the President appoint a committee of three members of the board to confer with the Clerk on the matter of condensing the proceedings.

Carried.

By the Clerk—

Law Department,
Rochester, N. Y., Feb. 23, 1900.
To the Hon. the Common Council of the City of Rochester:

Gentlemen:—Pursuant to section 422 of chapter 182 of the laws of 1898, I beg leave to report, that on the 3d day of January, 1900, in an action in the Supreme court, Monroe county, wherein the Rochester Bill Posting company was plaintiff, and the city of Rochester was defendant, said plaintiff, represented by Werner & Harris, its attorneys, recovered a judgment against said defendant for costs and disbursements in the sum of $116.03, which judgment bears interest from said 3d day of January, 1900, at the rate of six per cent. per annum.

Said judgment has become payable, and it is my opinion that the amount of it should be raised in the next levy of taxes.

Yours respectfully,
P. M. FRENCH,
Corporation Counsel.

Received, filed and published.

The Honorable, the Common Council:
Gentlemen—Your resolution of the 16th ultimo, requesting a report on the advisability of having one or more firemen stationed at each theater during performances was duly certified to me, and after some consideration and investigation I have the honor to report that I believe the action suggested would be desirable. I therefore hope to be able to make arrangements for a theater detail as early as practicable, and remain,

Very respectfully yours,
JAMES G. CUTLER,

By Ald. Judson—

City Treasurer's Office,
Rochester, N. Y., February 27, 1900.

To the Honorable, the Common Council:

Gentlemen:—The additional sum of $50,000 is needed to pay outstanding claims of 1899, and to reimburse the General fund of the treasury. This amount will be credited to the various funds, as follows:

Poor fund	$2,000 00
Fire Department fund	2,000 00
Water Pipe Extension fund	4,000 00
To reimburse the General fund....	42,000 00

Aggregating

$50,000 00

Will you kindly grant the necessary authority to issue the city's certificates of indebtedness for the sum named, for a period of not exceeding eight months, to meet these obligations?

Respectfully submitted,
S. B. WILLIAMS,
Treasurer.

Received, filed and published.

By the Clerk—

Rochester, N. Y., February 27, 1900.

To the Honorable, the Common Council of the City of Rochester:

Gentlemen:—I respectfully suggest that the following subjects, affecting the financial condition of the city, be considered by your honorable body, and be referred to the proper committees for deliberation and conference with other city officials:

First—The amount of taxes levied in the past, but uncollected, on account of which the city's notes have been issued, is approximately $375,000. It would seem to be desirable, from the standpoint of economy in interest payments, that the Legislature should empower the Common Council to authorize the issue of the bonds of the city at a rate not exceeding 4 per cent., to be known as Over-due Tax Bonds, to be used in paying the promissory notes or obligations issued on account of these uncollected taxes, and in caring for the uncollected taxes of each year hereafter.

Second—Under existing law, the period of time during which the payment of local improvement assessments may be extended, is fifteen years. In my opinion, the time should be reduced to nine years, as formerly authorized by law, with the result of retarding the accumulation of debt against the city.

Very respectfully,
JAMES JOHNSTON,
Comptroller.

Received, filed and published and referred to Finance and Charter Amendment committees.

By the Clerk—

City Treasurer's Office,

Rochester, N. Y., February 27, 1900.

To the Hon. the Common Council:

Gentlemen:—I hereby certify that the Executive Board have notified me that the works or improvements authorized under ordinances hereinafter mentioned have been completed; that I have, pursuant to the provisions of the charter, ascertained the entire and aggregate expense of, and connected with the same respectively, including any interest that the city shall incur, or is entitled to for the use of its funds,

and that the respective amounts thereof are as follows:

Ordinance and improvement. Expense.

ASSESSMENT ORDINANCE.

Whereas, the entire and aggregate expense of and connected with the improvements named in the following ordinance has been ascertained and reported to this council as provided by the city charter, therefore

Be it ordained by the Common Council of the city of Rochester as follows:

Section 1. The cost of said improvements hereinafter named is hereby adjusted as thus reported, and the City Assessors are hereby directed to make an assessment upon the territory directed to be assessed in the final ordinances for said improvements for the amounts respectively set forth, as follows:

Ord. No.

7766—Elizabeth street improvement.. $7,059 75

Each of the assessments for said improvements shall become due and payable in ten equal annual installments, as follows: The first installment with interest as provided by the charter shall become due and payable on the first day of the second month following the month in which the assessment roll for said improvement shall have been received by the city treasurer; and each annual installment with interest as provided by the charter shall be due and payable on the first day of the same month in each of the succeeding nine years.

Adopted by the following vote:

Ayes—Aldermen Tracy, Callhan, Marson, Race, C. S. Cook, Ward, Young, Beard, Casey, Baker, Reddington, Plumb, H. G. Cook, Parsons, Kelly, Ernst, Mead, Judson, Tanner, May—20.

By the Clerk—

City Clerk's Office,

Rochester, N. Y., February 27, 1900.

To the Honorable Common Council of the City of Rochester:

Gentlemen—At a meeting of the Board of Estimate and Apportionment, held February 27, 1900, the following resolution was adopted unanimously, which is herewith transmitted to you for your consideration, pursuant to section 96 of the charter:

By Mr. Johnston—

Resolved, That the Board of Estimate and Apportionment of the city of Rochester makes the following estimate of the several sums of money which it deems necessary to be raised by tax, to pay the expense of conducting the business of the city, in each department and office thereof, and for the various purposes contemplated by Chapter 182 of the Laws of 1898, as amended by Chapter 581 of the Laws of 1899, and otherwise by law, for the fiscal year 1900; and also to pay the principal and interest of any city indebtedness falling due during the year 1900, which estimate this board submits to said Common Council; and the clerk of this board is directed to certify a copy of this resolution to said Common Council, viz.:

By the Clerk—

City Clerk's Office,
Rochester, N. Y., Feb. 27, 1900.
To the Honorable the Common Council of the City of Rochester:
Gentlemen—The Board of Estimate and Apportionment, having submitted its official estimate for the tax levy of 1900, hereby respectfully transmits, for the information of your honorable body, the accompanying statements:

It must be remembered that preceding administrations of both political parties have been severely criticised for expending more than their appropriations, and thereby incurring deficiencies, or, to be more accurate, they have produced the same results by appropriating less than enough to meet actual necessities. The members of the Board of Estimate and Apportionment do not believe in the wisdom of this practice, and further, the new charter would not permit such action if they did.

The new charter not only forbids deficiencies, but it also prohibits the transfer of any money or balances from one fund to another, and for these reasons, it was deemed wise to include in the estimates for the several offices and departments an item for any unforeseen contingencies that may arise. For example, the estimate for the street and sewer bureau may seem large, but your attention is called to the fact that it includes an item of upwards of $10,000 for contingencies, which the Board of Estimate and Apportionment did not think it safe to omit.

The estimate for interest is considerably increased, but the city's indebtedness is increased correspondingly, and is in fact the largest in its history.

The estimates for the year's expenditures, including the contingency items, is $2,131,995, or about equal to last year's appropriations plus the deficiency and other items of indebtedness.

Unless some extraordinary and unforeseen emergencies should arise, it is certain there will be no deficiencies at the close of the year, and it is hoped and expected that there will be some substantial balances to the credit of the several offices and departments.

Schedule F is a summarized statement showing the appropriations through the various funds during the last four or five years. It will furnish an opportunity to compare this year's estimates with former years' expenditures.

Schedule D is a statement showing the items of the city's indebtedness and the sources from which they are to be paid. These amounts were all contracted previous to 1900, and aggregate a large sum, which the Board of Estimate and Apportionment is anxious to reduce as soon as practicable. A large amount is due from property owners for assessments on the numerous local improvements made last year, and active efforts will be made to prepare and place in the treasurer's office for collection the assessment rolls for them; by including the deficiency and other items of indebtedness in this year's tax levy, the city's indebtedness will be materially reduced.

The Board of Estimate and Apportionment also contemplates a measure whereby the city's notes, given to protect uncollected taxes, may be reissued in the form of bonds, at a reduced rate of interest.

It also contemplates an increase of the amount of local improvement bonds authorized, whereby a corresponding amount of the city's notes may be retired and a reduced rate of interest secured.

The following is an itemized statement which forms the basis of the reasons for the estimate which this board has sent on this date to your honorable body.

Respectfully submitted,

BOARD OF ESTIMATE AND APPORTIONMENT.

Secretary.

The estimate for the water bureau, exclusive of the special item for taxes on the conduit lines, is less than the expenditures during any year since 1890, with the possible exception of 1898, although the legitimate demands upon the bureau will be greater because of the increased mileage of mains and the increased number of consumers.

Lamp Bureau.

For lighting the city

This estimate allows less than $3,000 for new lights, a smaller increase than during any year since 1893.

Garbage Bureau.

For the collection and disposal of garbage

This estimate is increased $5,000 to protect any additional expense that may be incurred in arranging for a more frequent and better service than now prevails.

The board of contract and supply has advertised for bids, and it is hoped that these, when received, may enable the council to reduce this estimate.

Park Bureau.

For the care and maintenance of city parks

Park police

Aggregating

It is expected that before this estimate is finally acted upon by the council, it can be ascertained whether the park police are to be placed under the jurisdiction of the commissioner of public safety. If so, the item of $5,000 for police can be stricken out. This estimate for maintenance is an increase of $5,000, caused by the belief that former appropriations have not been sufficient to properly maintain and develop the city's park system.

The estimated increase for the police bureau $15,000, caused largely by the addition during the last year of twenty-five policemen, and the expense to be incurred under the new police ordinance. MISCELLANEOUS COMMUNICATIONS.

By Ald. Judson—Communication from the Musicians Protective Association, P. J. Oberdorf, president, petitioning for later car service.
Referred to Railroad committee.

STANDING COMMITTEE REPORTS.

By Ald. Judson—Finance Committee Report.
To the Common Council:
Gentlemen:—Your Finance committee begs leave to present the following recommendations in relation to various matters referred to it for consideration:

That the request of the Comptroller that authority be given to issue certificates of indebtedness for one hundred sixty-five thousand dollars ($165,000), required to meet the expenditures of the several departments during the month of February be granted.

That the Comptroller be authorized to pay certain guaranties on improvements, held by the city as security for the maintenance of the improvements, the guaranty periods having expired and the improvements certified by the Commissioner of Public Works to be in good order, as stated in a communication to this Council under date of February 13th.

That certificates of indebtedness in the sum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) be authorized, the proceeds thereof to be placed to the credit of the Hemlock Lake commission to meet its expenditures in completing the purchase of lands to protect the city's water supply, said certificates to be paid when due from the proceeds of the sale of bonds provided for by chapter 640 of the laws of 1899, as requested by the Hemlock Lake commission in a communication under date of January 16th.

That certificates of indebtedness in the sum of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) be authorized, the proceeds to be used in paying 1899 claims against the city, audited by the Comptroller, as requested by the Treasurer in a communication under date of February 13th.

That the Council grant the request of the Treasurer that certificates of indebtedness in the sum of $101,935.62 be authorized, the proceeds to be used in the payment of local improvement orders due and to become due on March 1st, as requested by the Treasurer in a communication under date of January 30th.

That, pursuant to section 20, of chapter 438 of the laws of 1895 the compensation of the Treasurer for his services in connection with the collection of the assessments for the west side trunk sewer, the payment of the bonds issued for the construction of said sewer and the interest thereon, be fixed at the sum of $1,350 annually, said sum to include the compensation of clerks employed by the Treasurer to assist him in said work. The act already referred to provides that the Treasurer shall give a bond in a penalty to be fixed by the Common Council but your committee is advised by the Corporation Counsel that bond already given by the Treasurer in the penalty of $100,000 is amply sufficient to protect the city.

Respectfully submitted,
CHAS. H. JUDSON,
W. H. MARSON,
FRANK A. WARD,
JAMES J. TANNER,
W. H. TRACY.

Hungerford Smith company, and after making such inquiry, we find no reason why the permission to construct said switch should not be granted, provided that a proper bond in the sum of $5,000 be given to protect the city from the possibility of loss by the recovery of damages against the city through the construction, maintenance, use and operation of said switch; and we would therefore respectfully recommend that permission be granted to construct the switch on giving such a bond.

REPORT OF THE WATER WORKS COMMITTEE.

Rochester, N. Y., Feb. 23, 1900.
To the Hon. the Common Council:
Gentlemen:—Your Water Works committee at a meeting held February 23, 1900, submits and makes the following statement and recommendations, relative to the work of extending water mains and other work connected with the water supply of the city for the year 1900.

Your committee has carefully examined the majority petitions for ordinary water pipe extensions on file at date, and the estimated cost for complying with those that require most relief, is included in the amount hereinafter stated.

Some provision also should be made for extensions or betterments of the water pipes existing in streets where permanent pavements may be ordered during the year.

Your committee would also recommend the removal of old wrought iron and substitution of cast iron pipes in such streets as most urgently require such change; some of these wrought iron pipes have been in service since 1882, have become deteriorated by age, afford no fire protection and should be replaced by permanent cast iron mains, the estimated cost of which is $1,850.

It is also recommended that provision be made for reimbursing certain corporations and individuals who have heretofore advanced funds for extension of water mains in private streets now dedicated for public use. The estimated cost of such reimbursements amount to $2,211.94.

Your committee has also carefully considered the work necessary for the completion of the new conduit, namely: Making permanent inlet and outlet connections at Rush and Mt. Hope reservoirs, and erecting suitable buildings at Hemlock lake at the south end of the brick conduit or tunnel, and at Mt. Hope reservoir, more fully set forth in the reports of the chief engineer of the waterworks on page 326 of "Proceedings of Common Council" for 1896, and the reports of the Executive Board for the years 1896, 1897 and 1898, and your committee feels the urgent necessity for the early completion of all this work, but, in view of the large amount of money required in the water pipe and water distributing system funds, recommends that only the new inlet and outlet connections and gate house at Mt. Hope reservoir be constructed this year. This work is absolutely essential in order to provide adequate service for the present domestic distributing system. Its estimated cost is $35,000.

Your committee recommends that provision be made for ordinary water pipe extensions and required betterments to the extent of about $20,000. In concluding, your committee begs leave to state that, as the appropriations that are now made for this year cannot be exceeded, it is expedient at this time not to specify definitely the particular work which the amount recommended as aforesaid for the extension and betterments, etc., of the water system is intended to cover, but to leave that matter for future consideration.

It is also deemed best, in view of the fact that the tax levy for the year 1900 may be submitted to your honorable body at the same time as this report, to transmit a copy hereof to the Commissioner of Public Works in order that he may present the same to the Board of Estimate and Apportionment if he should feel so disposed.

Respectfully submitted,

Sec. 9. This ordinance shall take effect immediately.

Ald. Mead objected to action upon the ordinance at this meeting and on his motion the ordinance was laid on the table until the regular meeting of March 13th.

By Ald. Plumb—Whereas, in times past, the public in the city of Rochester has been put to great inconvenience by the unnecessary closing of the street railway lines during the making of surface or sub-surface improvements in the streets in which such street railway lines are located, therefore,

Be it ordained that the Board of Contract and Supply be, and it hereby is empowered to insert in all specifications for contracts and in all contracts let by it for the making of such improvements, such provisions as shall prevent the unnecessary interruption of street railway traffic upon such street during the making of the improvement thereon.

Be it further ordained, that in the case of any public improvement hereafter made in streets in which a street railway is in operation, and both tracks of the double track road are necessarily taken up at the same time, or the single track in a street having only a single track, shall necessarily be taken up, if the railway company or its officers shall determine that, in their judgment, the operation of their cars upon a temporary track such as could, with reasonable care, be constructed under the circumstances, would be attended with danger to the passengers or employees, and that the operation of the same would be unsafe, and the city engineer shall approve such determination, then and in that case the railroad company shall be relieved from the duty of operating its railroad in that part of such street, which shall be torn up, during the time that such improvement is in process of being made, and during the time that such tracks shall necessarily be taken from their usual location, and under such circumstances, the railroad company shall not be required to lay a temporary track or to operate the same.

And in cases in which hereafter a public improvement is being made in a street, in which a street railway has been in operation, and during the making of such improvements the operation of the street railway shall be necessarily suspended in such street or in a part thereof, and the distance from the nearest point where the rails in said street have been disturbed to the end of the line shall be less than fifteen hundred (1,500) feet, the railway company, in its discretion, during the time that the tracks are so disturbed, may cease to operate cars upon that portion of its tracks, which lies between the end of such line and the point where the rails are torn up or disturbed, so as to prevent the passage of cars over such space, provided that such operation to the end of the line, shall be resumed as soon as a continuous passage for its cars can be had over such disturbed portion of the street.

Ald. Plumb moved that the ordinance lie on the table until the regular meeting of March 13th.

Carried.

COMMUNICATIONS FROM CORPORATION OFFICERS, BOARDS AND DEPARTMENTS.

By Ald. Judson—
Department of Public Instruction.
Office of Board of Education.
Rochester, N. Y., March 2d, 1900.

Ald. C. H. Judson, City:
Dear Mr. Judson—I enclose herewith a communication from Architect J. Foster Warner, regarding amount of money necessary to put schools in shape to do away with annexes.

Our previous estimates were made early in January, but as Mr. Warner has since then had time to look into the matter more fully, he finds that the increase of cost of labor and material, will necessitate a revision of the different amounts required for each school, a memorandum of which you will find noted on Mr. Warner's letter, and amounts to $120,000.

If any cut is made in the appropriation asked for by our Board, it will greatly cripple us in our efforts to put the schools in shape, if the reduction decided upon, by your committee, should bring the amount of our building fund below the above named sum.

Yours truly,
A. J. TOWNSON.
Received, filed and published.

By Ald. Judson—
Rochester, N. Y., March 2d, 1900.
Mr. A. J. Townson, President of Board of Education, City:

Dear Sir—Referring to the estimate which I gave you in January last, I have since then been employed in procuring estimates of cost of materials and labor, and I find them somewhat greater than I anticipated. I therefore beg leave to submit the following list of amounts necessary for the different schools, viz:

No. 8	$25,000
No. 29	21,000
No. 27	41,000
No. 30	21,000
No. 35	12,000

$120,000

The above amounts are estimates made according to the best of my ability, and while there will be variations in all items, yet I think the aggregate amount will be sufficient to do the work as planned.

Yours truly,
J. FOSTER WARNER.

Received, filed and published.

By the Clerk—
City Treasurer's Office.
Rochester, N. Y., March 2d, 1900.
To the Honorable, the Common Council of the City of Rochester:

Gentlemen—In regard to the payments for acceptances issued on account of local improvements:

Dou you wish the Comptroller or the Treasurer to report on the amount required to meet said payments?

There will be due March 15th, 20th and 25th, $21,712.69, and on April 1st, $44,416.05.

It will be necessary to issue the city's certificates of indebtedness for part of the above amount.

I would suggest that the matter be referred to the Finance Committee, who can be advised of the amount required to borrow at a later meeting of the committee.

Respectfully,
S. B. WILLIAMS,
Treasurer.

Received, filed and published and referred to Committee on Finance.

By the Clerk—
City Treasurer's Office.
Rochester, N. Y., March 2, 1900.

To the Honorable the Common Council of the City of Rochester:

Gentlemen—In the figures submitted to your honorable body at the meeting held last Tuesday night as to the expense of treasurer's office for the year 1900, there is an omission of $960 for services for one claim and check clerk. That clerk is now employed on the regular force, and has been on duty several years. The three statement clerks authorized by the Board of Apportionment and Estimate at $900 per annum have not yet been appointed.

Among the other expenses of the office, I note the charge of $1,000 for services of the Union Trust company of New York city. This company is registrar and transfer agent of the city's bonds, but the cost of their services should not be a charge against the treasurer's office. As the comptroller is now the chief fiscal officer of the city, should not this expense be charged to his department?

In regard to some of the items in the tax levy, I notice in the charge "estimated requirements," that the rate of interest in all cases is figured at 6 per cent. per annum. This in my judgment is excessive; temporarily you may have to pay that rate, but not for the amount stated, nor anywhere near it. I think the council would be justified in reducing the tax levy quite a little on this account. Forty-four thousand dollars is the estimated amount shown as required to take care of the interest on local improvement notes and acceptances, offset partially by an estimated income of $20,000 for interest on past due local improvements. There are also items shown under the head of "Interest," Schedule D. Local improvement bonds $5,833 and local improvement notes $11,007 and under the head of interest on the bonded indebtedness, for local improvement bonds, $17,500. All of these items, in my opinion, should be eliminated from the tax levy, as the taxpayers generally are not responsible for them; they should be paid from the local improvement fund, and I am quite sure the law so intends.

In the hasty reading or looking over the report, which explains the tax levy in detail, I notice that an increase of the amount of local improvement bonds authorized is contemplated, "whereby a corresponding amount of the city's notes may be retired and a reduced rate of interest secured." I would suggest as to the above, as I recommended to a former Common Council, that the rolls for the local improvements be hastened and the treasurer be supplied with the same, to the end that the notes above mentioned be paid and canceled, rather than that the city have its bonded indebtedness increased on account of local improvement bonds for a long term of years; I think it better to renew the notes for a short time, if you find it impossible to complete the assessment rolls; but urge upon each department to complete its share of the work at the earliest possible moment. Of course if you should happen to have a surplus this year, the levy would be much less next year; and then again, if you insist on payment of 6 per cent. for the use of money for the city, you can always find some bank or perhaps a trust company that will be willing to loan you at that rate. On the loan negotiated by the comptroller on February 1st, I could have saved the city $674.73 in interest, and on the loan of February 28th, $331.87, making a total of $1,006.60. I am not finding fault that the Comptroller now has charge of these matters; I am simply looking out for the people's interests. I have had nearly nine years' experience as their treasurer, and feel in duty bound to keep them posted, if their best interests are not looked after.

Respectfully submitted,
S. B. WILLIAMS,
Treasurer.

FINANCE COMMITTEE REPORT.

To the Common Council:

Gentlemen—Your Finance committee begs leave to submit the following report and recommendation in relation to the appropriation to be made by the Common Council for the support of the Department of Public Instruction for the current year:

The requisition of the Board of Education, certified to this Council at the meeting of February 13th, was for the following amounts:

For salaries of teachers.....	$343,400 54
For buildings, including purchase of sites.....	150,000 00
For contingent expenses.....	137,201 00
For repairs	25,000 00
For library	4,000 00

Aggregating$659,601 54

At the hearing given the Board of Education your committee was informed that of the $150,000 requested for the building fund, the board intended to use $12,000 in the purchase of a site on Montrose street for a new building in No. 6 district, and $26,000 in the purchase of the Riley triangle for a site for an East Side high school. The proposition to expend $38,000 in the purchase of sites on which the board did not intend to build this year was not favored by your committee. On the other hand the committee is unanimous on the question of giving the board an appropriation sufficient to meet its requirements for new buildings.

From the representations made to your committee by the Board of Education it was apparent that the board intended to expend only $112,000 on new buildings. At a later meeting of your committee a communication was received from the president of the board stating that owing to an increase in the cost of labor and materials the amount of money necessary to build the new schools required and abolish annexes is $120,000, which sum your committee hereby recommends as the proper appropriation for the building fund, with the understanding that no part of this sum will be used in the purchase of sites.

With reference to the teachers' fund, the contingent expense fund and the library fund, and the repair fund, your committee recommends that the amounts appropriated be the same as those certified as necessary for these purposes by the Board of Education, making a total appropriation of $629,601.54, as compared with an appropriation of $533,300 last year; being an increase of $41,774 for the building fund and $4,528 for the teachers' fund, over last year's appropriations.

Respectfully submitted,
 CHARLES H. JUDSON,
 W. H. MARSON,
 JAMES J. TANNER,
 FRANK A. WARD,
 W. H. TRACY,

Finance Committee.

Mayor Carnahan requested that he be recorded as opposed to the acceptance of the bill and submitted the following statement:

IN THE MATTER of the acceptance by the city of Rochester of a legislative bill amending provisions of the charter relating to the Board of Education.

This bill amends certain provisions of the "Dow law," so called, affecting the Board of Education of the city of Rochester. I am unable to concur in the acceptance of the bill for the following reasons:

The proposed amendment to Section 140-i,
which is, in fact, a re-enactment of that section, is very carelessly drawn, and there is a serious question whether it does not jeopardize the interests and rights of certain teachers in the grammar schools and kindergartens at present employed by the city. The re-enacted section requires that every such teacher shall have graduated from a normal school after completing a course of two years, or shall have pursued a course in a training school. There are some very excellent teachers now employed who do not possess those qualifications, and all appointments of teachers are new each year. The original "Dow law," which was passed in 1898, contained a section exempting from the condition of such qualifications teachers at that time (April, 1898)
in the employ of the Board of Education.
The proposed section in this bill, if accepted, will stand alone, complete and perfect in itself, as an enactment subsequent to that of 1898. It will confer the power to appoint, now or hereafter, only teachers who possess the qualifications above stated, and there will be no saving clause of exemption for present employees, applicable as of the time of the subsequent enactment; that is, 1900. It is so important that these teachers should not be placed in a position of uncertainty that, as I am informed, the amendments drawn by the Board of Education, and submitted by it, contained a clause in this section expressly exempting from its operation teachers at present employed. If the rights of those teachers are to be seriously affected, it is sufficient reason for disapproving the bill.

Other considerations lead to the same conclusion. Section 140-i, of the existing law, provides "that no person shall be appointed to the position of principal of the Free Academy, or high school, or of a grammar school, or teacher in the Free
Academy or high school, who is not a graduate of a college or university recognized by the regents of the state of New York,
and has not had at least two years successful experience as a teacher." The entire provision as quoted is omitted from the proposed amendment.

When the members of the Board of Education, who were elected last fall, assumed the duties of office on January 1st, they found the administrative features of the school law adapted to a board of twenty members, instead of five. Desiring to remove anomalous conditions continued by the statute as it existed, they prepared amendments and asked that they be adopted by the legislature. No one of the members of the board asked at that time that Section 140-i, above cited, be changed in any manner. When the bill embodying their amendments had passed the assembly and came to the senate, there was injected into it, against the protest of a majority of the board, an amendment to or a re-enactment of Section 140-i, which removed each of the two qualifications for principals of high school and grammar schools and teachers in the high school, namely: (1) Graduation from a college or university recognized by the regents of the state of New York; and (2) two years' successful experience as a teacher.

The members of the Board of Education came into office holding the esteem of the community and zealous for the welfare of the schools. They should be given a fair opportunity to carry on their work under the law with the material provisions thereof remaining the same as when they were elected. They should not have power to control legislation in any manner, but the request that the law be allowed to stand at least for a time, as it existed, was a very small request, inasmuch as no one contends that the provisions objected to were doing any immediate harm. The "Dow law" was passed in April, 1898, and no one then made strenuous objections to these qualifications for principals and teachers. The author of the amendment under consideration was then a member of the legislature and was again a member in 1899. And therefore during two years it was not discovered from the application of the provision in question in actual experience, that it was obnoxious.

Some of the objections to the college graduate qualification are very forcible, it must be admitted. In my opinion the important and controlling consideration in regard to this bill is that all requirements, including that of two years' successful experience as a teacher, are stricken out. What better test of a good teacher can there be than successful experience for a period of time? Are the positions of principals of high school and grammar schools to be left absolutely unprotected, perhaps to be distributed some time in the future as personal or political favors by a school board so disposed? Why should grade teachers be required to go through a normal school or training school course, if any bad or indifferent person can be picked off the streets for the higher positions? Was the requirement of two years' successful experience as a teacher omitted through mistake, or was there an intent to strike out all qualifications?

Attention is called to the fact that if the successful experience qualification and the college graduate qualification are so obnoxious, the work of removing them has not been thoroughly performed. For Section 140-c requires the superintendent of schools to be a graduate of a college or university recognized by the regents of the state of New York and to have at least ten years' successful experience as a practical educator. Section 140-h prescribes that to be eligible for appointment as a member of the Board of Examiners of teachers, the applicant must be a graduate of a college or university recognized by the regents of the state of New York, and a practical educator having had at least five years' successful experience.

The bill would then create this situation: The superintendent of schools must not only be a college graduate, but what is much more important, in my opinion, must have had ten years' successful experience as an educator. Members of the Board of Examiners must not only be college graduates, but have five years' successful experience as educators. Teachers in grade schools must have a normal school or training school education. But principals of the high school and grammar schools and teachers in the high school need have neither education nor experience as teachers. Applicants for the latter positions may lack all capacity to teach or to direct others who teach and yet they would be eligible for appointment. I do not believe that the people of Rochester want that situation created, and I, therefore, decline to concur in the acceptance of this bill.

There is no question here of what qualifications the board might or might not prescribe under its rules. The policy of establishing statutory qualifications for all instructors in the schools was established by the "Dow law" and is practically reaffirmed by this bill itself, as above indicated. The question is, why one class of instructors in the schools was selected for exemption from all requirements as to capacity to teach? A college diploma ought not to be a necessary or exclusive qualification. I would approve any bill which prescribed some reasonable tests which would assure competency in the persons selected to teach. And these tests suggest themselves; two years of successful experience as a teacher, or the holding of a state life certificate, or completion of a regular course at a normal school or a college. A person possessed of any one of those qualifications ought to be eligible.

COMMUNICATIONS FROM CORPORATE OFFICERS, BOARDS AND DEPARTMENTS.

By the Clerk—

Rochester, N. Y., March 13, 1900.

To the Honorable the Common Council:
Gentlemen—The communication from Treasurer Williams, submitted to your honorable body at its last meeting, seems to call for a reply, and one is hereby presented, commenting upon the Treasurer's criticisms seriatim.

First—The Treasurer admits that money enough was included in the estimate of expenses of his office to protect all needed clerical assistance, and if the amounts were not accurately apportioned, that defect can easily be remedied, without harm to any individual or interest.

Second—The item of $1,000 for the services of the Union Trust company, of New York city, is one that has been paid from former contingent funds for many years. This year, the Treasurer's office, in making up their estimate, called attention to the item, and it was included in the expenses of the Treasurer's office. It cannot be changed this year, but next year there will be no objection to including it as one of the items of expense connected with the Comptroller's office. The charge must be paid, and the city's interests are not affected by the question as to whether it should properly be paid through the Treasurer's office or the Comptroller's office.

Third—The Treasurer criticises the estimated rate of 6 per cent. for interest, as being excessive. The following statement compiled from the Treasurer's records shows the loans negotiated by him during the months of October, November and December last, and the rates of interest paid upon them:

Year.	Month.	Amount.	at.....	Rate.
1899	Oct.	$286,572	33	5 per cent.
1899	Nov.	328,997	88	5 per cent.
1899	Dec.	100,000	00	4.625 per cent.
1899	Dec.	32,773	71	at.....5 per cent.
1899	Dec.	321,435	00	at.....6 per cent.

Aggregating $1,069,778 92

SUMMARY.

At 5 per cent.....	$648,843 52
At 4.625 per cent.....	100,000 00
At 6 per cent.....	321,435 00

Aggregating $1,069,778 92
Average rate of interest, .05265.

With this experience confronting us, and with a knowledge that present and prospective conditions at home and abroad were more likely to make interest rates high rather than low, firm rather than easy, and with the knowledge that under the present charter provisions, moneys cannot be transferred from one fund to another, it was thought the part of prudence and wisdom to make the estimates for interest payments on the basis of 6 per cent. While the Treasurer was at home sick, the Comptroller conferred with the Deputy Treasurer, and the latter gentleman concurred in estimating interest on a 6 per cent. basis, and furnished a written statement of the amounts required. It does not follow that 6 per cent. is to be paid for the use of money, if it can be obtained for a lesser rate. Previous to the Board of Estimate and Apportionment's estimates, the Comptroller had negotiated only one series of loans aggregating $287,000. In doing this, every trust company and discount bank in the city received a written invitation to submit in writing sealed proposals for the loan, with the knowledge that such proposals were to be opened at a specified time in the presence of any persons desiring to attend. As a result of this procedure, the loan was placed at an average rate of 4 1-2 per cent. After the Board of Estimate and Apportionment's estimates were submitted, the Comptroller negotiated a second series of loans, aggregating $417,000. The same procedure was followed, and the loan was placed at an average rate of four and five-hundredths (4.05) per cent. The following quotations taken from the Commercial and Financial Chronicle of New York, show the rates that prevailed in New York:

Rates for Money in New York.

1900.	Week ending Jan. 5.	Jan. 12.	Jan. 19.	Jan. 26.
Time loans.
Ninety days..	6	5	5	4
Four months..	6	5	5	4@4 1-2
Five months..	6	—	5	4@4 1-2
Six months..	6	5 1-2@6	5	4@4 1-2

Rates for Money in New York.

1900.	Week ending Feb. 2.	Feb. 9.	Feb. 16.	Feb. 23.
Time loans.
Sixty days... 4	3 1-2	4		4 1-2
Ninety days. 4	4	4		4 1-2
Four months 4	4	4	4@4 1-2	4 1-2@5
Five months. 4@4 1-2	4	4	4@4 1-2	4 1-2@5
Six months.. 4@4 1-2	4	4	4@4 1-2	4 1-2@5

From the foregoing it will be seen that the rates on the loans were as low as the New York market, and considerably lower than the rates paid by the Treasurer upon recent loans negotiated by him.

In view of these results, is the Treasurer justified in intimating that the local banks and trust companies will be willing to take more than the prevailing rate of interest for city loans, and is he justified in intimating that the Comptroller insists upon payment of 6 per cent. for the use of money? The Treasurer says that he could have saved the city $1,006.60 on these two series of loans if he had negotiated them, and makes the statement to let the "people know that he is looking after their interests." Possibly he could, but the charter provision and Council ordinances both required the Comptroller to negotiate the any quotations for money from New York loans in question, and if the Treasurer had or elsewhere, why did he not make them known, so that the people could have received the benefit of his knowledge and experience?

The comptroller received no word or intimation that the treasurer had quotations that would have been advantageous to the people's interests.

It has been stated through the columns of the local press that the treasurer would have saved this amount by borrowing in New York, and the Comptroller has been criticised for not inviting proposals from New York parties; but the treasurer's records show that the lowest rates of interest ever secured by the city were upon money borrowed—not in New York—but of a local trust company, namely, the Rochester Trust and Safe Deposit company, and the comptroller believes in recognizing home industries—banking as well as others—before going elsewhere.

Fourth. The treasurer says that the interest estimates for the local improvement items should be eliminated from the levy. "As the taxpayers generally are not responsible for them they should be paid from the local improvement fund, and I am quite sure the law so intends." Here the Comptroller is obliged to differ with the treasurer and for these reasons: It is impossible to make the expenses for and receipts from interest in connection with the various local improvements balance accurately, and any excess expenditures for interest in connection with a local improvement cannot be assessed upon the abutting property, but must be borne by the taxpayers generally. For example: Take the Jefferson avenue improvement recently completed. Suppose the interest paid by the abutting property owners should prove insufficient to offset the interest upon the city orders or notes issued to pay the contractors. Can a second assessment be levied, and the deficiency assessed upon the Jefferson avenue property owners? If not, can it be included in the assessment for some other improvement? If not, who, then, will pay it? The city, i. e., the taxpayers generally, because they guarantee all the city's financial obligations. Suppose, on the other hand, the interest paid by the abutting property owners should prove to be more than enough to offset the interest paid upon the city orders or notes? Who receives the surplus? Shall it be refunded to the Jefferson avenue property owners, and if so, how shall it be done? If not, shall it be credited upon the assessment for some other improvement? No, because the abutting property owners interested in other improvements have no right to any surplus interest paid by the Jefferson avenue property owners. It therefore remains with the city and should be used to protect the interests of the city, i. e., the taxpayers generally. The treasurer must surely know that the local improvement fund is depleted, and that contractors' orders are, and will for several months be, maturing faster than assessments are being paid to meet them, for the treasurer's records show that certificates of indebtedness aggregating $150,000 have been issued during the last two months to replenish this fund; also that outstanding orders aggregating $250,000 will mature during the next three and one-half months, and that certificates of indebtedness approximating $150,000 will be required to protect them, in addition to the assessment payments to be received. If the interest items mentioned are eliminated from the tax levy how will they be paid? Will the treasurer borrow money to pay them, and if so, where will he get the authority for his action? Even if the authority should be forthcoming, will it be wise to borrow money and increase the city's indebtedness for the purpose of paying interest on its obligations, especially at a time when the treasurer's records show the city's indebtedness to be in excess of the legal limit?

Heretofore the treasurer has kept the record of the expenditures and receipts for interest on city orders or notes, so that any balances, debit or credit, have been included in the local improvement fund. Now the comptroller proposes a regular interest account, so that he and others may know on a moment's notice what the city's interest account is, both in its disbursements and receipts. It is, of course, expected that the receipts from interest on both overdue taxes and assessments for local improvements, will aggregate more than the amount paid for interest upon borrowed money. If this proves to be the case, the city will be the gainer, and no harm can come through showing the transactions in the tax levy estimates. In case this should not prove true, then the expenditures for interest must be protected, and the tax levy is the only place in which this can properly be done, because city orders, notes or certificates of indebtedness are liens against the entire city.

It is possible that the estimated receipts of $20,000 may prove too small, but it is the amount named by the deputy treasurer, and was used upon his recommendation.

Fifth—The treasurer says: "I have had nearly nine years' experience as their (the people's) treasurer, and feel in duty bound to keep them posted if their best interests are not looked after." Inasmuch as this is the culminating sentence of a severe criticism upon the tax levy estimates of the Board of Estimate and Apportionment, let us see how closely the treasurer has looked after the people's interests in the past. Notice the following statement, compiled from the treasurer's official records, showing the city's indebtedness, sinking fund amounts and expenditures, year by year, during all the time the treasurer has occupied the office:

CITY INDEBTEDNESS.

	Bonds.	Notes.	Orders.	Other Items.	Total.	Sink'g Fund. Am'ts.	Expenditures.

1899	9,116,000	1,182,463	926,450	11,224,913	566,698	2,781,002

Indebtedness was increasing at the rate, approximately, of a million dollars a year, and expenditures were increasing more than a hundred thousand dollars a year during the period from 1891 to 1895 inclusive.

Is there a record of any protest from the treasurer?

Last year, according to the treasurer's own records, the indebtedness increased over a million dollars and the expenditures increased $375,000.

Is there a record of any protest from the treasurer?

JAMES JOHNSTON,
 Comptroller.

By the Clerk—
 Rochester, N. Y., March 13, 1900.

To the Honorable, the Common Council:
 Gentlemen—Your attention is called to the fact that there are unpaid taxes of former years, both real and personal, amounting to about $350,000. The city's notes for this amount have been issued and are now outstanding. These notes will mature during the next three or four months, and if arrangements should be made to renew them, provisions should also be made for the payment of the interest upon them. These notes have heretofore been issued in the latter part of each year, and have been paid from the taxes of the succeeding year, but now the provisions of the charter, forbidding the transfer of moneys from one fund to another, will prevent such action. The treasurer failed to notify the Board of Estimate and Apportionment of the character of these notes, and the Comptroller did not realize that they would have to be renewed until after the Board of Estimate and Apportionment had submitted its tax levy estimates. The Deputy Treasurer had been requested to furnish a statement showing the city's outstanding notes, the interest due upon them, and an estimate of the requirements for interest during the coming year. The Comptroller was satisfied that the Deputy Treasurer's estimates were too low, but there was not time enough in which to prove the items accurately. It had been determined to make all estimates on a six per cent. basis, and it was also thought wise to make a liberal provision for the amount of notes or certificates of indebtedness likely to be needed. This forethought will enable the department of finance to meet the interest on the certificates of indebtedness outstanding and to be issued, for the unpaid taxes mentioned, and you are earnestly requested to see that the subject receives full consideration before the final adoption of the tax levy estimates for the present year.

Respectfully submitted,
JAMES JOHNSTON,
 Comptroller.

By Ald. Casey—

Rochester, N. Y., March 13, 1900.

To the Hon., the Common Council:

Gentlemen:—I beg to transmit to you herewith, with my approval, a petition from Mr. W. H. Emery, the owner in fact of Haidt place, a private place or street in the Ninth ward of the city, for permission to extend, at his own expense, an existing galvanized iron water pipe to such point north of its present end as may be required. An easement was granted to the city, executed March 5, 1900, for right to enter upon said place or street and perform any and all acts that may be necessary, expedient or advisable, in order to control such existing and contemplated water pipe to the same extent the city could or might do if said water pipe were laid in a public street at the expense of the city.

Respectfully,

J. HERBERT GRANT,

Commissioner of Public Works.

Received, filed and published.

Rochester, N. Y., March 13, 1900.

To the Hon., the Common Council of the City of Rochester, N. Y.:

Gentlemen:—The undersigned, attorney in fact for the owners of property and of a 11-4 in. galvanized iron water pipe in Haidt place, a private street in the Ninth ward of the city of Rochester, which street extends from Ambrose street to about 390

By the Clerk—

Mayor's Office,
Rochester, N. Y.

To the Honorable the Common Council of the city of Rochester:

I call the attention of the Council to the ordinance adopted at the last meeting, March 13, 1900, for the assessment of the cost of the improvement of State street from Jay street to Lake avenue under ordinance 6,727. I have not officially disapproved this assessment ordinance for the reason that I do not believe the Council was familiar with the facts of the case, and because the chairman of the Assessment committee has agreed with me that it ought to be repealed.

If the assessment ordinance stands as enacted the city of Rochester will be called upon to pay over $1,500 in interest which, of right, ought to be paid by the local property owners.

The Common Council determined that the entire cost of this improvement should be borne by the local property owners. The law provides that in such case the entire expense of the improvement, "together with any interest paid, or to accrue on the orders or notes issued by the city to pay the expense of such improvement," shall be assessed against the owners of the property directly benefited.

The history of this assessment is as follows:

October 20, 1897—Final estimate of cost.....	$17,655 19
November 5, 1897—Certified by Executive Board to Treasurer.....	18,174 66
January 13, 1898—Certified by Treasurer to the Common Council on basis of five payments.....	22,536 58
March 1, 1898—Assessment roll confirmed by Council, five payments.	—
March 15, 1898—Assessment roll reconsidered by Council.....	—
March 13, 1900—Assessment ordered by Council in ten payments.....	18,174 66

The amount of the assessment thus ordered is the original cost of the improvement, including expenses of inspection. Contractors' warrants were issued in payment of this cost as follows:

Six months orders, non-interest bearing, paid March 1, 1898.....	$5,884 93
One year orders, interest at 6 per cent. per annum, paid March 1, 1899	5,885 33
Two year orders, interest at 6 per cent. per annum, paid March 1, 1900	5,885 33

The amount of interest paid on the one year and two year orders was, therefore, $1,069.36. The Treasurer states that there is no record of any notes issued to pay the orders which matured March 1, 1898, and March 1, 1899. If cash from the treasury was used to make those payments, the use of that cash probably necessitated the issue of a note in payment of some other claim for which that cash might have been used. At any rate, the least that can be said is that the city lost the interest which would have accrued if that money had been left on deposit in the banks—that is, interest on $5,884.93 from March 1, 1898, to March 1, 1900, at 3 per cent., $352.09; and interest on a like amount from March 1, 1899, to March 1, 1900, at 3 per cent., $172.56. It has, therefore, cost the city treasury over $1,500 in interest to carry the cost of this improvement since the time it was completed. It is the settled policy in this city that street improvements shall be paid for by the local property owners, and it is unfair and unjust that property owners on other improved streets, who have paid the entire cost of their improvement promptly, should be called upon to pay part of the expense of the improvement of State street. This ordinance ought to be repealed, and the assessment of the entire cost ought to be ordered.

I also call the attention of the Council to the assessment of the cost of improving State street, from Center street to Jay street, under ordinance 6,693. The work was completed in the fall of 1897, the cost of inspection being $618.33 and the amount of warrants issued to contractors $42,445.84. Of these warrants $14,148.42 were six months orders, without interest, payable February 15, 1898, $14,148.71 were one year orders, payable February 15, 1899, with 6 per cent. interest; $14,148.71 were two year orders, payable February 15, 1900, with 6 per cent. interest. When the six months orders fell due February 15, 1898, a six months note was issued in payment of the same at the rate of 2 1-2 per cent. per annum, and the interest which accrued thereon was $193.83; this note when due was renewed for eight months at 3 1-2 per cent. per annum, with accruing interest, $330.13; at maturity a second renewal was made for seven months at 3 1-2 per cent. per annum, accruing interest, $288.86; a third renewal was made to February 13, 1900, at 5 per cent., accruing interest being $176.85. The accrued interest on the one year orders, due February 15, 1899, was $348.92. Upon that date a note was issued to pay the same, on which the interest charge was $268.83. The accrued interest upon the two year orders, due February 15, 1900, amounted to $1,697.80.

The total amount of interest, therefore, actually paid out of the city treasury on account of these notes and warrants has been $3,805.22. Notwithstanding this, the Common Council on December 5, 1899, ordered an assessment for this improvement of the amount of the original cost only, namely, $43,064.22, payment to be made on a ten year basis. As the case stands at present the taxpayers in general have paid $3,805.22 towards defraying the costs of this State street improvement. A supplemental ordinance ought to be passed at once assessing this additional expense in the same manner that the actual cost of construction was assessed.

Dated March 26, 1900.

Very respectfully,
GEORGE A. CARNAHAN,
Mayor.

Received, filed and published and referred to Committee on Assessments.

By the Clerk—
Comptroller's Office,
Rochester, N. Y., March 27, 1900.
To the Honorable, the Common Council:
Gentlemen:—There will be due in the near future, the following obligations:

April 15—Local Improvement orders, aggregating	$51,548 66
Interest thereon	1,465 00
April 27—East Side Trunk Sewer notes, aggregating	204,908 92
Interest thereon	5,125 00
April 27—Local Improvement notes, aggregating	81,663 41
Interest thereon	2,050 00
May 1—Local Improvement notes, aggregating	142,872 88
Interest thereon	3,575 00
May 1—Local Improvement orders, aggregating	71,489 57
Interest thereon	3,800 00

To meet them it will be necessary, in addition to the amounts of money on hand applicable for their payment, to issue the city's certificates of indebtedness for the following amounts:

April 15—Interest fund	$1,500 00
April 27—East Side Trunk Sewer fund	60,000 00
April 27—Local Improvement fund..	80,000 00
April 27—Interest fund.....	2,000 00
May 1—Local Improvement fund..	140,000 00
May 1—Interest fund	3,500 00
May 1—Local improvement fund..	70,000 00
May 1—Interest fund	3,800 00

Will you be good enough to grant the necessary authority, for periods ranging from three days to seven months?

There is now on deposit to the credit of the East Side Trunk Sewer fund $153,000, drawing interest at the rate of 3 1-2 per cent. per annum on monthly balances. If this amount is used on April 27th, to apply on the notes maturing at that time, the interest upon it for the 27 days will be forfeited, but if your honorable body will authorize the city's certificates of indebtedness for $150,000 for five days, the larger portion of the month's interest can be saved.

Will you, therefore, be good enough to grant the necessary authority for a period of five days?

Respectfully submitted,
JAMES JOHNSTON,
Comptroller.

By the Clerk—

City Treasurer's Office,
Rochester, N. Y., March 26, 1900.

To the Honorable the Common Council of the city of Rochester:

Gentlemen—In regard to the statement of the Comptroller submitted to your honorable body at its last meeting, I beg leave to say:

As to the first item, in the statement of expenses of Treasurer's office, the salary of one of the regular claim and check clerks is not provided for. The man filling this position has been employed in the office for several years, and his employment was authorized this year by the Board of Apportionment and Estimate.

Second—The $1,000 for services of the Union Trust company should be no charge against either the Comptroller's or Treasurer's office. The Treasurer objects to that amount being charged as an expenditure to his office, to be so shown later in one of the inevitable comparative statements or exhibits in which the Comptroller delights. As the services relate to the bonds of the city, the expense should be taken care of with the bonded debt charges.

Third—In regard to borrowing funds for the city, the Comptroller and Treasurer have always disagreed as to the best methods. We had a little experience in this line when the Comptroller was chairman of the Finance committee of the Common Council in 1896. The Treasurer is acquainted with all the bankers in the city and counts nearly all of them as his personal friends. In matters of loans and accommodations he has always tried to favor them, when by so doing the city did not lose by the transaction. He remembers interviews had with several prominent bankers and the present Comptroller, at which it was stated that it was the Treasurer's duty to place all loans with the Rochester banks at 6 per cent. interest and that such action would be heartily indorsed by all the taxpayers, on the grounds that "they (the banks) were home institutions conducted by our own people" who pay taxes for the support of the city government. On one special occasion when the city had a large amount to borrow, the then chairman of the Finance committee, after a lengthy meeting, expressed himself in favor of complying with the request of the bankers, to pay 6 per cent. when rates at a little more than 4 per cent. from New York parties had been obtained. The only reason the loan was not made here was, that the Treasurer demanded from the chairman as his protection a written order directing the loan to be so placed, which order was to be published the next day, explaining the transaction to the public.

The Treasurer's objections to placing the loans here at 6 per cent. were that lower rates could be obtained in New York city and that the bankers here on two different occasions had refused to loan the city at any rate of interest, thus forcing the Treasurer to go outside to meet the obligations due. Had the local banks always taken the city's loans at 6 per cent. there would have been some justice in continuing to borrow from them, even paying that rate. Yes, it might be justice, but is it not business to obtain the lowest rates possible?

The Treasurer has repeatedly asked the local banks if they wished to compete before the loans were placed, and it was always stated that in case of a tie bid the home institution's offer would be accepted.

The Comptroller when chairman of the Finance committee in 1896 countersigned sixty-four city notes of which but thirteen were placed with local institutions; the remaining fifty-one were negotiated with Dunscomb & Jennison, of New York city; still he may have forgotten that there was such a firm, or that city loans were ever placed with outside parties.

Regarding the Treasurer's not notifying the Comptroller as to the rate offered on the recent loans, I did say to him, "Shall I write New York city for rates, or will you attend to it?" To this I received no reply. This question was asked Monday evening, January 29th, about 7 o'clock, as we left the room after our meeting with the Board of Apportionment and Estimate. The Treasurer did not obtain the rates from Dunscomb & Jennison that would have saved the city $1,000 until the morning following the meeting of the Council at which the notes were authorized; the time for which they were to be made and the amounts of same were not learned until then. When the offer was received from New York a few hours later, the loans had been placed with local institutions.

It was not clear to my mind which official, Comptroller or Treasurer, should attend to the issuing of the city's notes. I was told that the Common Council would designate the official, and was awaiting their action.

The Comptroller says: "The Treasurer's records show that the lowest rates of interest ever secured by the city were upon money borrowed—not in New York—but of a local trust company, namely, the Rochester Trust and Safe Deposit company." He evidently refers to the loans of June 29, 1898, when $200,000 were borrowed at 2 1-2 per cent. for two months, and of March 4, 1897, when $84,500 were borrowed at the same rate for three months.

As a matter of record and fact, on the 29th day of June, 1895, I borrowed in the city's behalf $160,820 for forty days at 2 per cent. from Dunscomb & Jennison, of New York city. That, I believe, is the lowest rate at which the city ever obtained money. On June 24, 1895, $64,000 was borrowed at 2 1-8 per cent. on sixty days' time from the same firm. On December 4, 1894, $176,526 was borrowed at 2 1-4 per cent. on thirty days, from the same firm also. Other references to the city's note books show that large loans were made to the city by Dunscomb & Jennison at 1 1-4 per cent., 2 3-8 and 2 1-2 per cent., for one, two and four months.

I am not at all anxious to make the city's loans. Should the Common Council so direct, I'll do the best I can for the city every time. If it is the Comptroller's duty I will willingly confer with him—if he wishes it. If not, will simply keep the record of rates that prevail the days loans are made, not using any financial paper quotations, nor yet the average rate at which loans were placed at some time previous, as a basis for the new transaction.

In the Comptroller's fifth statement, the insinuation is made that the Treasurer is responsible for the increase of the city's indebtedness and expenditures, and the question is asked: "Is there any record of any protest from him?" Yes, time and time again. Should you wish to examine records of same, I refer you to a few of them as follows:

Common Council proceedings, August 9, 1892, page 191; March 30, 1893, page 631; August 22, 1893, page 217. Comptroller member Common Council; July 23, 1895, page 165; June 30, 1896, page 428. Comptroller chairman Finance committee; July 20, 1897, page 445. Comptroller member Common Council; January 18, 1898, page 25; June 21, 1898, page 346; December 20, 1898, page 600; July 17, 1899, page 462.

The Treasurer repeatedly called attention to the injustice of the city's paying 6 per cent. interest on the one and two years' contractors' acceptances when a lower rate of interest should prevail. This is a matter of record, as well as the fact that finally the present Comptroller in last year's session of the Executive Board offered the motion that the rate of interest on these acceptances should be reduced on all future payments.

In regard to the amount named in the tax levy, "interest charges for local improvements," I do not think it is right that these items should stand, as I stated in my former communication. These notes should be renewed from time to time if necessary, until the collections for improvements are sufficient to retire them. The expense of such renewals should be charged to the local improvement fund, and not to the general public at large. Such action is authorized by section 1, chapter 393 of the laws of 1899, which has recently been published in the daily papers.

As to the city's indebtedness being in excess of the legal limit, as stated, the Treasurer proposed, and did reduce, the amount by the retirement of local improvement notes before they became due, when the collections would allow this to be done. Of course, if the rolls are not forthcoming, the collections cannot be made or the notes retired.

The indebtedness could also have been reduced by calling in some of the notes issued on account of the East Side trunk sewer, which are now outstanding. Parties holding notes might have made a rebate in interest and perhaps not, still the amount of our debt could have been reduced to the extent of $100,000 at least.

In another communication from the Comptroller under same date, he charges the Treasurer with failing to notify the Board of Apportionment and Estimate of the character of the $350,000 notes outstanding on account of unpaid taxes. The Comptroller must have forgotten that $150,000 of this same amount was issued by himself since January 1, 1900. Furthermore, several trial balances have been furnished him since the first of the year in which the amount was designated as "Bills payable" "General fund," and showing same as an 1899 transaction.

The explanation in regard to former proceedings in borrowing funds for the city will give you an idea why the Comptroller acted as he did. I cannot expect to compete with him on figures and statements—no live man can—but I will to the best of my ability try to keep down the expenses of the city, so that the owners of the little homes who have done so much toward making Rochester "a city of homes," are not "taxed out of their boots."

Every dollar not really necessary, added to the tax levy, will cause much suffering to those who can ill afford it, so I hope the local improvement items referred to by me may be cut out of the levy, and that in future the Comptroller will borrow the necessary funds at the cheapest rates possible.

Respectfully submitted,
S. B. WILLIAMS,
Treasurer.

To the Hon. the Common Council of the city of Rochester:

Gentlemen—Referring to your resolution of the 24th instant asking my opinion concerning the constitutionality of an act authorizing, empowering and directing the Common Council of the city of Rochester to re-assess the amount of the cost and expense of improving Dartmouth street, from the south side of Thayer street in Park avenue, upon the property benefited thereby, it is my opinion that the act referred to is constitutional.

Yours truly,

To the Hon. the Common Council of the City of Rochester:

Gentlemen—
Referring to the tax budget, there are certain items included in the estimate made by the Board of Estimate and Apportionment which the Common Council has no power to reject or diminish.

The Board of Estimate and Apportionment, as required by section 96 of the new charter has made an estimate of the several sums of money which they deem necessary to be raised by tax to pay the expenses of conducting the business of the city in each department and office thereof, and for the various purposes contemplated by the new charter and otherwise by law, for the fiscal year 1900, and also to pay the principal and interest of the city indebtedness falling due during the year.

The estimate was on February 27, 1900, by the Board of Estimate and Apportionment, submitted in writing, with such reasons for it in detail as it had to give, to the Common Council, and it then became the duty of the Council to convene and consider such estimate, also to hear any taxpayer who wished to be heard in reference thereto, and, after such hearing, to adopt such estimate as was submitted to it, or diminish or reject any item therein contained, except such as relates to the city debt, and adopt the estimate as thus amended; but the Council has no power to increase any item in such estimate for any department, office or purpose.

It is first to be noticed that no items can be rejected or diminished except those which are contained in the estimate proper. By this is not meant the items in the detailed statement which contains the reasons given by the Board for the estimate. None of those items by name can be affected by the action of the Council, because they are not in the estimate. The estimate itself is the only thing over which the Council has any power.

Of the items contained in the estimate none which relates to the city debt can be rejected or diminished. It is my opinion that the city debt includes every obligation of the city to pay money irrespective of the purpose for which it has been incurred or the form of the evidence of the obligation. The principal and interest of all bonds and notes which become due during the year, and which have been included in the estimate, must be met by payment. This is true of indebtedness incurred for local improvements as well as for any other debt. The fact that the city expects eventually to be reimbursed by the property owners for the money paid for this purpose can make no difference. The notes and bonds issued for local improvements are debts of the city. If not, the city would find it very difficult to negotiate them. The whole scheme is a lending of the city's credit for the purpose of making the improvements without waiting until the money can be collected from those who ought to pay, but the written promise of the city, as shown by its notes and bonds, is to pay at certain definite times both principal and interest. The holders of these obligations have the right to so consider them, for they so read. The city is liable on these obligations whether it collects from the property owners or not. The amendment of the old charter passed last year provides for the payment of deficiencies in the local improvement fund from the city treasury, and there is no way of covering money into the treasury for that purpose except through the estimate, tax budget and collection from the taxpayers. Items in the estimate provided for that purpose relate to a city debt, and, therefore, cannot be rejected or diminished.

Another form of indebtedness which the Council has no power to reject or diminish is found in the items for salaries and compensation of officers and employees of the city. By the new charter the heads of the various departments are authorized to appoint to hold office during their pleasure (not during the pleasure of the Council) deputies and "such other subordinates as may be prescribed by the Board of Estimate and Apportionment." On this subject the Board has acted, and the number of subordinates in the various departments and offices has been prescribed. The Council has no power in any instance, or under any circumstances, or by any manner or means, to reduce the number of these subordinates.

Section 98 of the new charter gives the Board of Estimate and Apportionment authority to "fix the salaries or compensation of all city officers or employees," except the few which are fixed by statute and such officers and employees as are required to serve without compensation. That which is "fixed" is established and made definite and immovable. The same section directs that such salary or compensation of every officer or employee shall be fixed before his election or appointment (except in the first instance after the new charter took effect), and further directs that they "shall not thereafter be changed until the expiration of the term for which he was elected or appointed."

This is mandatory, and the Council has no jurisdiction over the question of the amount of salary or compensation of any officer or employee of the city. The term for elective officers is fixed by the statute, and the terms of the deputies and subordinates continue during the pleasure of the appointing power. During those terms such salaries and compensation are by the statute made unchangeable. As soon as a position has been authorized by the Board, the salary or compensation fixed by the Board, and a person has been appointed to that position by the head of the department, the salary so fixed becomes a city debt which will become due during the year and for which the city is unquestionably liable, and when included in the estimate cannot by the Council be rejected or diminished.

It is, therefore, my opinion that the tax budget as amended and adopted by the Council must include the items stated in the estimate on account of the city debt, and must include an appropriation for each department which shall be an amount at least sufficient to pay in full all the salaries and compensation for officers and employees prescribed by the Board of Estimate and Apportionment and as fixed by it; and it is, of course, the duty of the Council to also include such other and further items as the Council believes to be necessary to conduct the business of the city through said departments.

In determining these further sums it is necessary to remember that the new charter expressly provides that it shall not be lawful for the city or any officer, board or department, thereof, to expend or contract to be expended, or to incur any liability in the current fiscal year for a greater sum than is so estimated for such officer, board or department and so provided for by the Common Council in the tax levy, and moneys cannot be transferred from one fund or department to another. Therefore, if the appropriations are not sufficient to carry on the business of the city government the consequences will be serious, because as soon as the appropriation for any department is exhausted the business of the city carried on through that department must be at once suspended and remain suspended until the year 1901, and the city will be absolutely powerless to relieve itself from the situation.

Gentlemen—In the matter of the proffered dedication of Mania street by William Dove and others, and Englert street by John Mussmacher, for public uses, which matters were referred to this department for examination as to the expediency of accepting said streets for public purposes, I beg leave to report adversely to the applicants. There has been a failure to comply with the requirements of the city as per statement made to me by the City Engineer, which is herewith transmitted to you as a part of this report.

Respectfully,

Mr. J. Herbert Grant, Commissioner of Public Works, Rochester, N. Y.:

Dear Sir—We find that the claims of the parties offering to dedicate Mania street to the city as a public highway are correct, except in the matter of being convenient for public use and traffic. The street has not been graded, and is not convenient for public use.

In the matter of Englert place, a portion of which is offered for dedication as a public highway, all conditions have been complied with except the proper definition of the street lines by stone monuments, which have not been set. The name also should be changed to Englert street, instead of place, to make it conform to that portion already a public street.

Respectfully,

WILLIAM J. STEWART,
First Assistant City Engineer.

PUBLIC IMPROVEMENT COMMITTEE REPORT.

To the Common Council:
Gentlemen:—Your Public Improvement committee begs leave to recommend the adoption of the first ordinance for trap rock macadam pavement, curbs and walks on Portland avenue. Both the City Engineer and Corporation Counsel advise this course as a necessary step in the direction of what is sought to be accomplished in the improvement of this thoroughfare.

With reference to the ordinance presented by Ald. Young extending the time within which payments on the Central avenue Medina block pavement assessment rolls can be made your committee finds that the cost of this improvement was nearly $30,000 and that the rolls are on a three payment basis. They were confirmed nearly four years ago and collections have been in progress since that time. The assessment on the individual property owner was in many instances burdensome. On February 15, 1898, the Council by resolution, extended the time within which payments might be made with interest at 6 per cent. to March 1, 1900. As the interest which the city is receiving on deferred payments is amply sufficient to reimburse the treasury for interest on money borrowed to meet contractors' acceptances your committee would recommend the adoption of the ordinance presented by Ald. Young for the relief of such property owners as have not been able to meet their payments.

Respectfully submitted,

W. H. MARSON,
HENRY G. COOK,
J. M. REDDINGTON,

FINANCE COMMITTEE REPORT.

By Ald. Judson—
 To the Common Council:

Gentlemen—Your Finance committee begs leave to submit the following report on the recommendations of the Board of Estimate and Apportionment for the tax budget for the current fiscal year:

The present charter provides that "within sixty days after the commencement of each fiscal year the Board of Estimate and Apportionment shall make an estimate of the several sums of money which they deem necessary to be raised by tax to pay the expenses of conducting the business of the city in each department and office thereof," and that "after it has made such an estimate it shall submit it in writing with such reasons as it may have to give, to the Common Council, which shall convene and consider such estimate." And the charter further provides that the Common Council "may adopt such estimate as submitted to it or diminish or reject any item except such as relates to the city debt."

From the wording of the charter, it is evident that it was plainly the intent of its framers that the Common Council should have full jurisdiction in the matter of tax-levy appropriations, the only limitation upon its authority being that imposed by the provision which prohibits it from appropriating a greater sum for any department or purpose than the amount recommended by the Board of Estimate.

Your committee undertook the task of revising the estimates submitted to the council by the Board of Estimate, in the full belief that none of the responsibilities attaching to the important function of making a tax levy could be evaded by the Common Council. We believe that the taxpayers will hold this council fully accountable for any excess in appropriations beyond the amount actually required for a proper administration of the various departments, and we have no sympathy with the suggestion that the council shirk any portion of this responsibility under cover of the pretext that the charter affords a possible excuse for so doing.

The power of the Common Council to effect a reduction in the salaries proposed by the Board of Estimate and Apportionment, has been questioned. Your committee is informed that it was the intent of those who framed the charter that the council should have jurisdiction of this subject; and inasmuch as the amount paid by the city in salaries constitutes one of the largest items of municipal expenditure, your committee is of the opinion that the theory of "no jurisdiction" is entirely inconsistent with those provisions of the charter which constitute the Common Council a board of review on the estimates submitted by the Board of Estimate.

As submitted by the Board of Estimate, the total of the estimated expenditures for maintaining the city government, less estimated receipts to be credited to the general fund, was $1,529,325.00; for deficiency items, $209,000.00, and for other items of indebtedness $127,412.00. Adding to these sums the appropriation already determined by this council for the Department of Public Instruction, viz.: $629,601.54, the result would be a total levy of $2,495,338.54, an amount largely in excess of the largest tax levy in the history of the city.

This sum may be sub-divided as follows:

1. For the Department of Public Instruction, in excess of the amount received from the state:
New buildings and sites	$120,000	00
Salaries, supplies, etc.	509,601	54
			$629,601 54
2. Deficiency items, unpaid bills and interest thereon	292,572	00
3. Interest on bonded debt of the city at large	409,135	00
4. Interest on local improvement bonds, notes, acceptances, etc	148,090	00
5. Interest on general city notes..	19,750	00
6. Credited to city bonded debt, sinking and other special funds	93,141	00
7. Department expenses, erroneous assessments, local assessments on city property, etc.	1,616,820	00
Total	$3,209,109	54
8. Estimated receipts of all kinds: Water works, license fees, interest, etc.	$713,771	00
Total amount to be levied...	$2,495,338	54

It will appear that the first three items, to wit: The estimate for the Department of Public Instruction, which has already been approved by the council, and the estimates for deficiency obligations and the interest upon the funded debt of the city, may be considered as fixed charges and not subject to reduction.

In regard to the fourth item, that for interest upon local improvement bonds, notes and acceptances, your committee is of the opinion that these amounts should not be included in the levy upon the city at large, but that they should be paid from the amounts to be collected in the form of assessments upon the property benefited by the improvements for which the debt was created.

Regarding the fifth item, that of interest upon general city notes, your committee advises that only so much be included in the present levy as is likely to be required during the current year and at probable rates.

The sixth item is the estimated amount to be credited to the sinking fund. Your committee finds included in this year's levy nearly $300,000 for deficiency obligations and over $100,000 for new school buildings. Furthermore, the city must pay this year and for two years to come more than $100,000 in excess of the normal rate of interest upon its bonded indebtedness, owing to the fact that the water bonds have still three years to run at 7 per cent. In view of the fact that a half million dollars is included in this year's levy for these items, your committee feels that it is for the interest of the taxpayers to apply to the sinking fund this year only such amounts as the law absolutely requires.

The seventh item includes the requirements of the several departments of the city government. After very careful consideration in which your committee has been aided by the very able advice of the heads of departments and others, we have decided to recommend that the reductions set forth in the accompanying schedule A, which is hereto annexed and made a part of this report, be made. In the judgment of your committee these reductions will not impair the usefulness of any bureau or department of the city.

In making these reductions your committee does not wish to reflect upon the good judgment of the Board of Estimate and Apportionment. Many of the requisitions from departments were sent to the Board of Estimate very early in the year, and later developments and information obtained have indicated that in some instances these estimates may be safely reduced.

In further explanation of the recommendations regarding salaries, your committee would say that in a general way increases in salaries have been rejected unless justified by the peculiar circumstances surrounding the case. The general principle that has governed your committee on this subject is that all employees should be paid alike for the same class of work. For example, your committee decided to make the salary of all women stenographers $600 per year. In two instances it seemed that justice demanded a departure from this principle—in the case of the women stenographers employed in the Municipal court and in the Department of Public Works. The work required of the Municipal court stenographers demands a high grade of professional skill, and the young lady employed as a stenographer in the Department of Public Works does the stenographic and typewriter work for the Bureau of Engineering as well as for the Waterworks Bureau, being frequently required to work overtime.

In the estimate for the Comptroller's office was an allowance for the full year's pay of three clerks who have not yet been appointed, and of the necessity for whose services your committee was not convinced.

In its deliberations regarding the salary of the Corporation Counsel, your committee took into consideration the fact that the Corporation Counsel receives for his own use costs recovered in actions in which the city is successful.

In considering the matter of the salaries of the Assessors, your committee had in view the fact that there are now four Assessors instead of three, and that the work of each must consequently be somewhat lightened.

SPECIAL MEETING.

Present—Hiram H. Edgerton, President of the Common Council, and Aldermen Tracy, Marson, Race, C. S. Cook, Ward, Young, Beard, Casey, Baker, Reddington, Plumb, H. G. Cook, Parsons, Kelly, Ernst, Judson, Tanner, May—18.

By the Clerk—
 City Clerk's Office,
 Rochester, N. Y., March 31, 1900.

Mr. T. S. Pulver, City Clerk:
 Sir—You will please call a special meeting of the Common Council to be held April 3, 1900, at 4 p. m., in the Common Council chamber, to consider what action shall be taken in reference to the mandamus proceedings brought by the people on the relation of George A. Carnahan against the Common Council.

H. H. EDGERTON,
 President of the Common Council.
 Received, filed and published.

By the Clerk—
 City of Rochester,
 Law Department,
 April 2, 1900.

Mr. Hiram H. Edgerton, President Common Council:

Dear Sir—I wrote you on Saturday concerning the order to show cause why a peremptory writ of mandamus should not issue, directed to the Common Council, directing it to assemble and reconsider its action of March 27, 1900, concerning the tax budget, and adopt a new budget. At the same time I sent a similar letter to each member of the Common Council.

Section 416 of our new charter provides that the Corporation Counsel shall be and act as the legal adviser of the Common Council, and of the several officers, boards and departments of the city, and that he shall appear for and protect the rights and interests of the city in all actions, suits and proceedings brought against it, or any city officer, board or department, and that such officers, boards or departments shall not employ other counsel.

The law department, of which the corporation Counsel is the head, is an integral part of the city government. By the section just referred to, it is made his duty to have charge of the legal affairs of the city. The Common Council is a part of the same government. The mandamus is directed to the Common Council as a body. The members of the Council as individuals have no interest in the proceeding. If the application for the writ of mandamus is granted it will direct them as public officers to perform a public duty. It is the Council as a body which is before the court, and the official acts of the Council are made the subject of the proceeding. In this proceeding it is the city which is interested in ascertaining the duties and obligations of its officials, and the charter has provided for the city the right to appear in judicial proceedings, through its regularly constituted legal representatives, and it has imposed upon the Corporation Counsel the duty to appear and protect its rights.

I therefore conceive it to be my duty in this proceeding to appear for the Common Council upon the return day of the order to show cause in the proceeding, and present to the court whatever in my judgment seems to be best for the city; and it is certainly important for all citizens that the questions be decided at the earliest date possible.

If the members of the Council desire it, I shall ask the court to hear any attorney whom they may select to present an argument upon the questions of law involved.

Yours truly,
 P. M. FRENCH,
 Corporation Counsel.

Received, filed and published.
 By Ald. Plumb—Resolved, That the Common Council of the city of Rochester oppose the application made in the name of the people of the state upon the relation of George A. Carnahan for a writ of mandamus.

And inasmuch as in the proceedings under said writ it is possible that the court might be asked for a construction of the statute which would affect the salary paid the Corporation Counsel, and said Corporation Counsel might have an interest adverse to the action taken by the Common Council, and therefore could not properly represent said Common Council in such proceeding, it is further

Resolved, That the Common Council employ James Breck Perkins as counsel to appear for it in said proceedings and argue and litigate the question presented therein.

Adopted by the following vote:
 Ayes—Aldermen Tracy, Marson, Race, C. S. Cook, Ward, Young, Beard, Casey, Baker, Reddington, Plumb, H. G. Cook, Parsons, Kelly, Ernst, Judson, Tanner, May—18.

Nays—None.
 Adjourned.

THEODORE S. PULVER,
 City Clerk.

The Chair stated the question to be, "Shall the act be accepted?"

No person appeared to allegiate for or against the acceptance of the act, and the roll call resulted as follows:

COMMUNICATIONS FROM THE MAYOR

By the Clerk—

City of Rochester,
Executive Division,

April 5, 1900.

T. S. Pulver, Esq., Clerk:

Dear Sir:—Pursuant to the provisions of Section 21 of the charter, I return to you herewith an ordinance relating to the police force of the city of Rochester, which I disapprove, together with a memorandum of my objections thereto.

Very truly,

GEORGE A. CARNAHAN,

Mayor.

To the Honorable, the Common Council of the City of Rochester:

I return herewith to the Council with my disapproval an ordinance entitled "An ordinance relating to the Police department of the city of Rochester." This ordinance enacts as follows: "The Commissioner of Public Safety, Chief of Police or any person in charge of the Police department of the city of Rochester, N. Y., shall not detail, authorize or direct any member of said Police department or officer thereof, except in uniform or a member of the regular detective force, to do any act or thing for the purpose of procuring evidence, or in inducing, causing or assisting any person in doing any act which shall be a violation of the liquor tax law, of the state of New York, or to commit any crime prohibited by the said statute."

This ordinance was introduced at the last meeting of the Council, March 27th, was considered by unanimous consent and passed the same evening, there being three negative votes.

Upon first reading it might be supposed that the ordinance was prompted by a desire to conserve the morals of police officers. Officers not in uniform are forbidden, for the purpose of procuring evidence, to do any act, or to assist another in doing any act which shall be a violation of the liquor tax law. But it will be observed that the prohibition is only against regular officers not in uniform and not against detectives in citizen dress or regular officers in uniform. It has not been explained why an act by an officer in a uniform is moral, while the same act by the same officer outside a uniform is immoral. Nor is it understood why a detective may do a condemned act while another man may not. If these distinctions of dress and calling are so efficacious for virtue, all mankind should either go into uniform or become detectives.

It has been said that an officer would not be sent to a dry goods store to invite a clerk to steal an article of his employer's property. Certainly not, if the clerk had the reputation of being honest and upright. But if there was good reason to believe that he was willfully and persistently stealing, that is just the course a clever police officer would adopt to make out a case against the offender. Suppose the congress of the United States should pass a law directing the government's secret service officers, whenever engaged in detecting a pilfering mail clerk, never to send into his hands money marked for identification, except in a crimson colored envelope!

The result of this ordinance would be to protect violators of the law, and no law-abiding citizen, of any calling, wants to have that done. The ordinance is designed to give warning to transgressors of the law of the approach of police officers.

I disapprove the ordinance for another reason, namely, that I have doubts of the power of the Common Council to enact the same. The legislature has in the charter commanded that the laws of the state be duly executed within the city. And in obeying the command of the legislature the Commissioner of Public Safety has authority to use all means and instruments not forbidden him by the legislature. The legislature having commanded the execution of laws, the Common Council, which is itself a creation of the legislature, cannot impose any conditions which hinder or embarrass the officers of the law in the performance of that duty.

Dated April 5, 1900.

GEORGE A. CARNAHAN,
Mayor.

To the Honorable, the Common Council:

Gentlemen—On October 24, 1899, I submitted a communication relating to the approaches of University avenue subway under the tracks of the N. Y. C. and H. R. R. R.

The subject matter of this communication was referred to the Public Improvement committee, but they were unable to take up the matter previous to January 1, 1900. I would recommend that this matter be again referred to the Public Improvement committee, the aldermen of the Sixth and Eighteenth wards, the Corporation Counsel and the City Engineer, to examine, and report to this Council as to what action, if any, is necessary to be taken with reference to the excavation now made on the south side of University avenue.

Respectfully,

E. A. FISHER,
City Engineer.

To the Hon. the Common Council of the
City of Rochester:

Gentlemen—Pursuant to section 422 of chapter 182, of the Laws of 1898, I beg leave to report, that on the 21st day of March, 1900, in an action in the Supreme court, Monroe county, wherein Matilda Schneider was plaintiff and the city of Rochester was defendant, said plaintiff—represented by Morse, Livermore & Griffin, her attorneys, with Mr. Elbridge L. Adams as counsel—recovered a judgment against the city of Rochester for the sum of five hundred and sixty-five dollars and fifty-five cents ($565.55) costs, which judgment bears interest from said 21st day of March, 1900, at the rate of six per cent. per annum. Said judgment has become payable, and it is my opinion that the amount of it should be raised in the next levy of taxes.

MISCELLANEOUS COMMUNICATIONS.

By the Clerk—

Rochester, N. Y., April 9th, 1900.
The Honorable, the Common Council of the City of Rochester:

Gentlemen:—Referring to the ordinance introduced some weeks since by Alderman Baker, requiring the Rochester Railway company to run its cars until 2 o'clock a. m., upon each day in the week, and which was referred to a committee, I desire to say that the counsel of this company has advised it that, in his opinion, the Council have no power, under existing contracts with the City of Rochester and the Railway company, and under the franchises heretofore granted by the city of Rochester to the Railway company, to pass and enforce this ordinance, and I understand that the corporation counsel is doubtful as to the existence of this power. It would, of course, be extremely distasteful to the company, and I doubt not, to the city authorities, to have such a question litigated, as there really seems to be no necessity for such a litigation. In order that the company might give assurance to the public that it desired to do anything that was reasonable in the matter, Mr. Bissell stated to the law committee, to whom the ordinance was referred, at my request, that the company would, by way of experiment, run its cars upon each day of the week, except Saturday, until 12.30 a. m., and upon Saturdays until 1.00 a. m. The company makes this offer, fully believing that it will be demonstrated that the patronage after 12.00 o'clock, will in no wise warrant the experiment. Yet, nevertheless, inasmuch as there seems to be a demand from certain people for increased hours of travel upon the railroad, it has determined to make this offer, and if accepted by the Council, to enter upon the experiment at once and continue it until it shall be demonstrated whether sufficient patronage will be given after those hours to warrant the experiment. If, in case it should be demonstrated that these cars will be patronized sufficiently to warrant the additional expense, I can assure you that the company will be only too glad to extend the hours hereafter to a point when the patronage shall cease. The company would be only too glad to run their cars all night, if the public would patronize them to the extent that would warrant the additional expense which would be incurred in so doing.

Yours truly,

T. J. NICHOLL,
Vice-President Rochester R'y Co.

RAILROAD COMMITTEE REPORT.

To the Hon. the Common Council of the City of Rochester:

Gentlemen—Your Railroad committee, to whom was referred the petition of a number of the property owners and residents on Marietta street requesting the abatement of a smoke nuisance alleged to be created by the New York Central and Hudson River Railroad company, do hereby report:

At a meeting held by your said Railroad committee, there appeared before us Mr. George H. Hasetline and Mr. Albert Harris, representing the said New York Central and Hudson River Railroad company, who assured your committee that the matters referred to in the said petition would be attended to without delay, and that any changes or alterations necessary to avoid any nuisance or annoyance to the residents and householders, would be made.

We therefore respectfully recommend that no further action upon such petition be taken by your honorable body at this time.

Dated April 10, 1900.

By Ald. Plumb—

LAW COMMITTEE REPORT.

To the Common Council:

Gentlemen—Your Law committee begs leave to submit the following report:

Your committee has considered the ordinance submitted to it amending the penal ordinance relating to street railroads so as to require the Rochester Railway company to run cars every thirty minutes between the hours of midnight and 2 a. m.

Representatives of the street railway company appeared before the committee and stated that the operation of their lines between the hours mentioned would involve great loss to the company as the receipts would not pay the cost of operation.

As stated in a communication from Vice-President Nichol presented at this meeting, the company will undertake, by way of experiment, to run its cars upon each day of the week, except Saturday, until 12.30 a. m. and upon Saturdays until 1 a. m.

Your committee is of the opinion that before any coercive measures are attempted by this Council the company should be allowed to ascertain whether the patronage of cars run after midnight will be sufficient to warrant the innovation.

Your committee would therefore recommend the acceptance of the offer of the street railway company contained in the communication from Mr. Nichol.

Respectfully submitted,
WILLIAM T. PLUMB,
WM. J. BAKER,
CHAS. H. JUDSON,
CHAS. S. COOK,
J. MILLER KELLY.

MISCELLANEOUS BUSINESS.

(Hearing on Legislative Bills.)

By the Clerk—
 City of Rochester,
 Executive Division,
 April 12, 1900.

To the Honorable the Common Council:
 Gentlemen—I have received from the clerk of the assembly the following legislative bills:

1. An act to amend chapter 193 of the laws of 1888, entitled "An act to authorize the selection, location and acquiring of certain grounds for public parks and park-ways in and near the city of Rochester and to provide for the maintenance and embellishment thereof."

This act provides for the consolidation of the park police and regular city police forces, and transfers from the Park Commission to the Commissioner of Public Safety the duty of providing police protection for the parks, park-ways, approaches thereto and streets connecting the same, etc.

2. An act to authorize the city of Rochester to supply water from its water mains to the property of Frank Scherer in the town of Gates, New York, outside of but near to the corporate limit of said city.

This act authorizes the Commissioner of Public Works of this city to supply water from the public water works mains of the city to the property of Frank Scherer in the town of Gates, under certain restrictions and conditions.

I have given notice of a public hearing on the above named bills, for April 12, 1900, at 4.30 p. m.

Respectfully,
GEORGE A. CARNAHAN,
 Mayor.

Received, filed and published.

By the Clerk—
 City of Rochester,
 Department of Public Safety,
 Office of the Commissioner,
 April 11, 1900.

Hon. George A. Carnahan, Mayor:
 My Dear Sir:—Referring to the park police bill as passed by the legislature and which is to come up for consideration by yourself and the members of the Common Council on Thursday afternoon, I respectfully draw your attention to the fact that there are now only seven men on the list of park police—not more than half enough to police the parks during the summer season, with the probability that some of them may be disqualified under the physical examination.

As I read the act, the Commissioner of Public Safety would be obliged to assume the policing of about six hundred acres of parks and would have no authority to appoint any officers for this purpose except those who might be eligible under the act, from the list of park policemen as it now stands. It should be understood, therefore, that it would be necessary for the Common Council to pass an ordinance authorizing the Commissioner of Public Safety to employ additional policemen, and, subject to this understanding, I should be glad to see the bill approved.

Very respectfully yours,
JAMES G. CUTLER,
 Commissioner of Public Safety.

Received, filed and published.
 The act providing for the consolidation of the park police and city police forces and transferring to the Commissioner of Public Safety the duty of providing police protection for the parks was presented and read by the clerk.

Mayor Carnahan requested that he be recorded as favorable to the acceptance of the act.

JAMES JOHNSTON,

By Ald. Plumb—

To the Honorable the Common Council of the City of Rochester:

Gentlemen—Theresa Elias, in 1897, commenced an action against the city of Rochester to recover ten thousand dollars ($10,000) damages for injuries claimed to have been sustained by her on account of a fall occasioned by a defective sidewalk.

The action was tried and resulted, on December 1st last, in a nonsuit, with a direction by the trial justice that the exceptions be heard at the first instance in the Appellate Division.

Argument has been had at the Appellate Division, and it has decided that plaintiff's exceptions were well taken, and has ordered a new trial. From this decision Mr. Justice McLennan has written a dissenting opinion.

Under the circumstances of this case it is my judgment that it is wise to appeal from the decision of the Appellate Division to the Court of Appeals, giving the usual stipulation required in such cases.

Dated April 17, 1900.

Yours respectfully,
P. M. FRENCH,
Corporation Counsel.

Received, filed and published.

By Ald. Plumb—Be it ordained by the Common Council of the city of Rochester as follows:

The Corporation Counsel is hereby authorized to appeal to the Court of Appeals from the decision of the Appellate Division, Fourth Department, granting a new trial in the case of Theresa Elias against the city of Rochester, and to give the usual stipulation required in such cases.

Ayes—Aldermen Tracy, Callihan, Marson, Race, C. S. Cook, Ward, Young, Beard, Casey, Baker, Reddington, Plumb, H. G. Cook, Parsons, Kelly, Ernst, Mead, Judson, Tanner, May—20.

City of Rochester,
Department of Public Works,
Rochester, N. Y., April 23, 1900.

To the Common Council:

Gentlemen—In the matter of the negotiation for the purchase of property deemed necessary to be acquired for the widening and extension of Sawyer street, and which was referred to this department by the Common Council, I beg leave to present the following report:

A map of the proposed improvement was submitted by the City Engineer and notices were duly issued to the several owners of lots named on such map, and a time set for their appearance before the Commissioner of Public Works, at his office in the City hall.

Hearings were given those who appeared, and because of the prices asked by some of the owners and the refusal of others to name any sum and the non-appearance of a few whose property is to be taken, I deem it necessary, in view of these facts, to recommend to your honorable body that a commission be authorized by you to condemn lands found necessary to be taken if the improvement is to be carried forward to completion.

Respectfully,
J. HERBERT GRANT,
Commissioner of Public Works.

Received, filed and published.

By Ald. Tanner—Whereas, The Commissioner of Public Works has reported that no agreement has been reached with the owners of land deemed necessary to be taken for Sawyer street widening and extension, under final ordinance No. 346; therefore,

Resolved, That the Corporation Counsel be and he hereby is authorized and directed to institute such proceedings as may be necessary to acquire the lands or easements therein necessary for said improvement under said ordinance.

Adopted by the following vote:
Ayes—Aldermen Tracy, Callihan, Marson, Race, C. S. Cook, Ward, Young, Beard, Casey, Baker, Reddington, Plumb, H. G. Cook, Parsons, Kelly, Ernst, Mead, Judson, Tanner, May—20.

LAW COMMITTEE REPORT.

Rochester, N. Y., April 24, 1900.
 To the Hon. Common Council:
 Gentlemen—Your Law committee respectfully report: That it has conferred with the Corporation Counsel and examined into the matters relating to the easement of the City of Rochester over certain property recently owned by the Genesee Paper company, and finds that the easement of the city in said property is of such a character as to make a public sale of the easement impracticable for the reason that the city could not convey any title or rights thereto to any purchaser thereof. The easement amounts to, in substance, nothing more than the right of the city to use a reservoir and the water therein contained for fire purposes and only during the actual continuance of a fire.

We find that the easement has not been used by the city for upwards of twenty years last past; that there is no probability of its every being used in the future, and that it is of no value to the city.

We therefore respectfully recommend that the said easement be released and extinguished.

Respectfully submitted,
WILLIAM T. PLUMB,
CHAS. H. JUDSON,
CHAS. S. COOK,
J. MILLER KELLY,
WM. J. BAKER,
 Law Committee.

Received, filed and published.

By Ald. Plumb—Whereas, By an instrument dated the 14th day of August, 1867, and recorded in Monroe county clerk's office in liber 222 of deeds at page 199, the Rochester Paper company granted to the city of Rochester the free right to enter upon, use and enjoy certain premises occupied for a reservoir by the Rochester Paper company, which affects land now owned by the Genesee Paper company; and,

Whereas, The city of Rochester has made no use of the said easement for more than twenty years, and as appears by the certificate of the Chief Engineer of the Fire Department of the city of Rochester, has no use for the same, the supply of water in the section of the city where the reservoir is situated being adequate for all purposes; and,

Whereas, The said easement is of such a nature that it cannot be used by any person or corporation other than the city of Rochester, and by reason thereof a public sale of the said easement would be of no effect and would involve needless expense;

Be it ordained, That the said easement be and the same hereby is released and extinguished, and the mayor is hereby authorized to execute and deliver to the said Genesee Paper company a formal instrument of release thereof.

Adopted by the following vote:

Ayes—Aldermen Tracy, Calihan, Marson, Race, C. S. Cook, Ward, Young, Beard, Casey, Baker, Reddington, Plumb, H. G. Cook, Parsons, Kelly, Ernst, Mead, Judson, Tanner, May—20.

Rochester, N. Y., April 24., 1900.
 To the Hon. the Common Council of the City of Rochester:

Gentlemen:—Your Assessment committee begs leave to submit the following report:

In the matter of the petitions of Peter W. Martin and H. S. Brewer, we recommend that the same be denied.

mon Council at once pass a new assessment ordinance, and that the City Assessors, with all convenient speed and without delay, make up said assessment-roll and certify to same as required by the city charter.

And we beg leave to further report that the facts set forth in the Mayor's communication aforesaid in reference to assessment ordinance under final ordinance No. 6,693 are in all respects correct and true, and we therefore recommend that the City Treasurer certify to this Council the amount of interest and that upon said certification this Common Council pass a supplemental assessment ordinance for the additional expense and assess the said expense upon the territory required to be assessed under final ordinance No. 6,693.

PUBLIC IMPROVEMENT COMMITTEE REPORT.

To the Common Council:

Gentlemen—Your Public Improvement committee, to which was referred the ordinances for the improvement of Clinton avenue north, from Main street to the N. Y. C. and H. R. R. R., would report thereon as follows:

Your committee held a meeting for the purpose of ascertaining the sentiment of the property owners. No one appeared to allege against the proposed improvement, and several of the interested property owners were present to advocate the adoption of the ordinances.

The Public Improvement committee of the Common Council of 1899 investigated the subject and recommended the improvement of the street. Clinton avenue north is one of the main approaches to the principal railroad station in the city, and its present condition does not invite traffic. The greater portion of the expense of improving the street will fall upon business property which will be greatly benefited. The property owners on this thoroughfare from the railroad north to Clifford street have been compelled to pay for an expensive improvement, and it is but justice to them that the improvement be extended to Main street.

For the reasons enumerated your committee recommends the adoption of the ordinances.

Respectfully submitted,
WILLIAM S. BEARD,
W. H. MARSON,
CHARLES H. JUDSON,
HENRY G. COOK,
J. M. REDDINGTON,
Public Improvement Committee.

Received, filed and published.

By Ald. Parsons—

Office of Rochester Railway Company,
Rochester, N. Y., April 14, 1900.

Ald. Frank G. Parsons, 1 Laburnum Crescent, City:

My Dear Sir:—Within the last two weeks there have been several very narrow escapes from fatal accidents in this city, on account of bicyclists riding between our tracks on Main street and other streets where there are double tracks, which, as you can readily understand, is an extremely dangerous thing to do, as they very often get on this narrow strip of pavement between the rails, with one car coming behind them and another car coming towards them, and they almost invariably loose their presence of mind and turn out onto the track immediately in front of the car that is following them up. They not only seem to forget that the car is behind them, but at the last moment forget that it is difficult for them to cross the rail at an oblique angle, and the consequence is that their wheels slip, and they fall off, either to go under the life guard, or be caught by it. Our motormen are not all mine readers, and therefore cannot anticipate the movements of bicyclists in this situation, although they proceed very carefully when they see a person on the track, and if it had not been for their presence of mind, in two cases particularly, lately, the result would have been disastrous.

I now therefore beg to call your attention to this matter, with the request that, if you can see your way clear, you will recommend the passage of an ordinance prohibiting bicyclists from riding between the double tracks on our car lines, where the same are located in such close proximity to each other.

Thanking you in advance for your prompt attention to this matter, which I feel sure you will see the necessity of, I am,

Yours very truly,
T. J. NICHOLL,
Vice Pres. & Gen. Mgr.

Received, filed and published.

By Ald. Parsons—

Sec. 2. This ordinance shall take effect immediately.

By Ald. Judson—Whereas, The owners of the property fronting on Leighton avenue, between Palmer and Barnum streets, have petitioned this Council to close that portion of said avenue between said streets; now, therefore,

Whereas, The Comptroller has officially recognized the action of the Common Council in the matter of the aforesaid salary reductions by a written communication addressed to the heads of departments under date of April 26, 1900, requesting that pay rolls for subsequent months be prepared on a basis of the salaries recommended by the Common Council; and,

Whereas, On pay roll checks issued for the month of April last to officers and employees in whose salaries a reduction had been specifically recommended by the Common Council, the words "on account" had been written; and said officers and employees were permitted to receipt for such checks as for money received "on account" of salary due; and,

Whereas, Such action on the part of the fiscal officers of the city may give rise to litigation against the city; therefore, be it ordained by the Common Council of the city of Rochester as follows:

Section 1. The City Treasurer of the city of Rochester, in issuing checks to city officers and employees in payment for services as such officers and employees, shall require each officer and employee to whom a check is issued to execute, at the time of receiving such check, a full release of all claims against the city for services rendered during the period in payment for which such check is issued; and he shall not issue nor give to any officer or employee any check for services rendered unless nor until such release shall have been executed.

Section 2. The Treasurer of the city of Rochester shall not, after the passage of this ordinance, issue any check to any city officer or employee in payment for services, with any endorsement thereon, having the purport or meaning, or which may be construed to mean that such check is tendered as a partial payment for services rendered or to be rendered.
