Inauguration
Malik D. Evans
Mayor of Rochester

Dear Rochester,

Today marks the beginning of a New Year and my term as your mayor of the great city of Rochester, New York.

I am ready to get to work—with you, our city residents and all of our city stakeholders who care so deeply about the future of our city—addressing our many challenges and opportunities.

We can show the country and the world what the “Rochester Way” is all about:

Collaboration. Collective Effort. Engagement. Extraordinary Talent. Innovation.

These have always been our strengths and I am confident that together, we will Build a Bridge to Rochester’s Future.

Thank you for joining me on this journey.

Malik D. Evans, Mayor, City of Rochester, New York
